

Mr. Alvin Norman Skoog

December 20, 1943 - May 25, 2020

It is with such immense sorrow, my sisters Wendy, Shelly and I must share with you the news that our father Alvin Skoog, age 76, passed away peacefully on Monday, May 25th at Rockyview Hospital in Calgary. Our Dad succumbed to illness after a very long battle with medical problems related to a traumatic brain injury, which occurred in 2005 and then peripheral vascular disease & diabetes. Our dad had gained a strong belief in God and was comforted by the knowledge that one day he would join our mother in Heaven. One of his cardinal traits was his unwavering love for his family. Before retiring our father was in construction and was a proud union member. In his later years, Dad enjoyed spending time watching the Walton's, Little House on the Prairie, and Highway to Heaven.

Our father is survived by his three loving daughters, Liane (Dale) MacDonald, Shelly Kadej and Wendy (Robert) Shard and his grandson's Curtis Shard and Clinton Shard. He was also very loved by Teri Basi, whom he considered like a daughter. Teri never forgot our Dad, especially at Christmas, where you would find the two of them caught up in a crib game. Dale and I felt so privileged to be in the role of Legal Guardian to our dad. He was predeceased by our mother Jeannette (Skoog) on July 7, 2015 and whom we affectionately referred to as "Peanut". Even though divorced, our parents became the best of friends once again. For this reason, I have included the picture that was our father's favorite of the two of them together. Dad took such pride in his grandson's Curtis and Clinton, and they brought him much joy. Dad embraced his son-in-law's Dale and Robert, which I think showed his love for his daughters, whom he always wanted the very best. Our father also has sisters and brothers, and many nieces and nephews, for which he enjoyed calls and visits over the years whom will miss him dearly.

We would like to extend our gratitude to the Longview Steakhouse, Starbelly's, and the Cattle Barron for the warm memories we have of our weekly outings with my Dad. Most importantly, a very special thank you to the care team at the Bethany Care Centre in Calgary. The care team were exceptional in how they cared for our father and showed such compassion, especially with how creative they were during this pandemic. They often went out of their way so family members could still be connected with Dad via face-time for much-needed connection. Additionally, we would like to thank Bethany Care Centre resident Anna, who spent countless hours with dad playing crib and sharing snacks of wagon wheels my Dad would bring to all games. Lastly, our family would like to extend their sincerest gratitude towards Alana and Craig of Lyle Reeves Funerals in High River, for being very accommodating and understanding during this difficult time as they also did with our mother. There will be a celebration of our father's life post-Covid-19 with a special message to all to stay well.

“ In thinking back on all the stories Liane shared about her Dad and the antics he got up to (busting out of his care centre for example) it is not too surprising to think of the legacy he left for a daughter who is also an independent adventurer! Your loving care for your Dad, Liane has always been so evident and your fight for him to be treated with dignity and respect stand strong in my memory. May he Rest In Peace. Love to you Liane.

“ Dear Liane, I am so sorry for the loss of your dad. I fondly remember the stories you would tell of both your parents and your beautiful relationship with them. Knowing your warm and caring nature, I am sure that your dad was a wonderful person who was proud to call you his daughter. Sending you love and strength. Love Cara “ Liane... I am sorry for the loss of your dad. You need to take some comfort in knowing that you always provided your dad with exceptional care. You made him a priority. Do not think that he did not recognize this. He knew you were his angel. You cared for your dad in ways that only a few get to experience, and these will be your memories to hold. Your dad is at peace, and he will continue to watch over you and celebrate you. Your memories and stories will keep him close to your heart.

Thoughts are with you Liane.

“ Liane my condolences to you, Dale and your siblings. I never met your Dad, but through reading all these memories and tributes in Alvin's honor, as well from what I have heard from you, he was a well liked and loved man.
You will miss your time spent with your Dad, also the phone conversations. Take the beautiful memories you have of these times and let it help you through this journey called grief.
Look to the sky tonight, see the brightest, twinkling star, that's your Dad letting you know he made it home.
Know you are in my thoughts and prayers

“ Liane;
I am thinking of your and your family at this time. I remember very well learning all about your father through our conversations at ADTP and I know how meaningful and important he was. It was always clear how much love was present in your family. I am sure that he has now joined his loved ones and is in a very good place. Those stories and memories will continue to live on and reverberate. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ Liane,

My sincere condolences to your family, parents are pillars of the family and their loss weakens the ties. Memories and love that is passed on keeps family members connected and the chain of love gets passed on to future generations. Although, your dad passed on physically but his soul remains connected to guide his loved daughters.

It is clear that you and your sisters were loved and cared for by your parents. My prayers are with you, and may you find the comfort in the love and the memories you shared with him.

I remember your love and caring for your dad & have looked up to you for how dedicated and persistent you had to be to ensure he was well looked after the last few years; also all the wisdom and grace you have that nourished your relationship with your dad in the hardest times. You have such a big heart and strength like no other, and I yet I would still like to send some of my strength your way. Missing you, and wishing you well - Jenine Cocke (Hmonic)

“ For a brief moment while here on this earth, I was privileged enough to meet and know Alvin Skoog, or as I knew him: “Big Al.” I spent many days needling and joking with Big Al. I watched him cared for by his daughter Liane and her husband, Dale. He was boisterous, comical, and loving. He had three crazy daughters who he loved and accepted. And I watched him admire a woman we all cherished: Jeanette Skoog.

Big Al always let me know where he stood. He'd speak his mind, whether he agreed with you or not, and always found a way to humorously connect regardless of difference.

Big Al was 'old school' and came from a traditional day and age where things were done a certain way and that's how he liked them. But he could see across generations, his children and their children, young and old, rich and poor — people of all faiths, races, cultures and backgrounds — and demonstrated a respect for all people.

To his very last days, Big Al's life was instructive. With tucked-in shirt and well-kept hair, he showed us how to grow old with dignity, humor, and kindness. He listened intently when I shared stories, and imparted wisdom as best he could.

In many ways, Al was a fantastic representative of Alberta: busy, hard-working, and tough. He endured for decades, and valued character and expected good from everyone.

Al's daughters and the rest of us have already suffered a great loss when their mother passed away. And now we say goodbye to their father, who's presence will stay with us forever.

It was a gift getting to know Al: he was a great man. In our grief, let us smile knowing he is holding Jeanette's hand again.

With great regard and much love,
Walter Cardona

“ Dear Liane...

A Grief Blessing

May the sun bring you new energy every day, bringing light into the darkness of your soul

May the moon softly restore you by night bathing you in the glow of restful sleep and peaceful dreams

May the rain wash away your worries and cleanse the hurt that sits in your heart

May the breeze blow new strength into your being, and may you believe in the courage of yourself

May you walk gently through the world, keeping your loved one and you always knowing that you are never parted in the beating of your heart. ~Native Apache Blessing~

I know how special your father was to you...May his Soul Rest in Peace...Debra “ My deepest condolences to you Liane and Dale. You were such amazing caregivers to your father.

He and your mother were so blessed to have you for a daughter and every parent should be so fortunate. The knowledge that you went above and beyond for your parents every single day should bring you great peace and contentment. I am going to share with you one of my favorite poems that I treasured when my sister passed away:

I thought of you today,
but that is nothing new.

I thought about you yesterday,
and days before that too.

I think of you in silence,
I often speak your name.

All I have are memories,
your picture in a frame.

Your memory is a keepsake,
from which I'll never part.

God has you in His arms,
I have you in my heart.

“ Liane & Dale.

My deepest condolences to you both at this sad time, you have such a journey with your dad and his health over the years and prepared for his passing many times but nothing can really prepare you for the actual loss and the pain you feel when it happens. Liane you have been a rock star for your dad and your love for him shone through in everything you did for him and every battle you fought for him. I remember the times when despite how tired you was and the difficult times after loosing Peanut you still stayed strong and positive for your dad and spent quality time with him making memories.

I have so many memories of my time with Alvin but the memory I am hearing as I write this is the love in his voice when he called you 'Lizzy'. I have had the honor of being included in you family for over 12 years now and in bringing me into your family you also brought both Peanut and Alvin into my life. I remember the fires, the dinners and meals out together, spending time helping him settle into Okotoks and connecting with him in hospital when you were looking after you and away camping.

When I think of your dad I think about how involved and connected he wanted to be with everything and everyone around him. Trying his best to help out and provide his advice and viewpoint, his 'helping' build the walkway and the rails for the stairs :) Despite his health challenges what stands out for me about Alvin was his smile, his humor, his outlook and the delight he took in being around friends and family. I will miss him, I was looking for a picture of us with your dad and came across this one, it speaks to the love you all had.

“ Sending a ton of love to you and your family Liane ! I never met your Dad but you always talk about both of your parents in such a kind, loving and compassionate way. You are the best model of unconditional love and kindness , which is no surprise given how amazing you are. I know your parents live on in you and they both must have been amazing too ! Now they are together at last and will be with you always!

I'm thinking of you and know that you are surrounded by love!

I know you will feel grief fully , be vulnerable with it, and I know you will mend and heal with time.

This quote is one I know you would share with me

“We run from grief because loss scares us,yet our hearts reach toward grief because the broken parts want to mend.”

“ Cribbage master Frank Lake has been quoted as stating that Cribbage is 85% luck and 15% skill. Too me Al was a "cribbage master" and he would say he played with 85% skill and 15% luck! Al and I had many games together with sometimes 'neck in neck' to the finish line. Each game came with laughter, Al giving me some advice or just being a good sport and saying 'good game or you will win next time!'. It is the moments with Al that stick with me. May not be long but always left an impact. I am lucky to have had many years with AL!

Say hi to Peanut for me Al!

I unfortunately did not have too many opportunities to spend time with your dad but I do fondly remember one occasion in which I visited him at the hospital and we even had a friendly game of crib. ‘Firecracker’ is the word that comes to mind when I think of him. I was also in the background of many calls you’ve had with him and I just remember his wit and the way he knew how to push your buttons! He lives on in hearts and memories for sure. Much love to you.

“ To beautiful Liane, friend of my heart, Dale and the entire Skoog family;

Words cannot express the depths of our grief, nor the breathe of our gratitude for the privilege of loving someone so precious to us.
Nevertheless, may you find some solace in this beautiful Olde Irish funeral poem:

Remembered Joy

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I follow the plan God laid for me.
I saw His face, I heard His call, I took His hand and left it all...
I could not stay another day,
to love, to laugh, to work or play;
tasks left undone must stay that way.
And if my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss...
A yes, these things, I too shall miss.
My life's been full, I've savoured much:
Good times, good friends, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief - don't shorten yours with undue grief.
Be not burdened with tears of sorrow,
Enjoy the sunshine of the morrow.

With Love and Understanding,

“ Liane it was an Honor to meet your dear dad and to get to know him. You were Blessed with his qualities of being: A people person, working hard, being involved in worthy and important causes, and being genuine (No Bullshit)! Those were the qualities I learned about your Beloved Dad While Listening To His Stories. He loved his family and friends, he loved God and God Loves Him. He fought a long hard battle to walk with you as long as he could. You were a devoted loving and caring daughter and this was a Blessing for you and your dear dad. He as your mom have left the Physical World to the Spiritual World and now he is at Devine Peace. He has a Special Place in Your Heart and He will be there for Forever with you Liane.
