

Mr. Chad Harvey Parsons

September 27, 1968 - May 3, 2014

It is with broken hearts and great sadness that we announce the passing of Chad Parsons on May 3, 2014 at the age of 45. Chad is survived by his loving wife Nicole and his treasured children Cole, Mitchell, Emma and Nate. By his parents Harvey and Norlene Parsons, brother Aaron, mother-in-law Sue Miller, numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and in-laws. He was predeceased by his grandparents Laurene Anderson, William Park, Harold and Hazel Parsons, father-in-law Larry Miller and niece Kaiti Perras. Chad was born in Winnipeg, Manitoba and moved to Saskatchewan at a young age. His banking career took him to many areas of the province before settling in Nanton, Alberta. He was well respected in his career and had a strong sense of community. Chad had many interests such as curling, golfing, baseball and camping. He was also an avid Roughrider fan. But nothing was more important to him than his family. He was an active dad who loved coaching and being involved in every aspect of his children's lives. Together, he and Nicole have built a strong and loving family. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made at any Alberta Treasury Branch - Chad Parsons Children's Trust Account, or to the Kaiti Perras Love of Dance Scholarship Fund c/o any Toronto Dominion bank. A Celebration of Chad's Life was held on Thursday, May 8th at 1:00 p.m. at the Nanton Community Centre in Nanton, Alberta. “ Not sure where to begin, growing up Chad was the 'cool' one if he like a song I liked the song, if he thought Hires Root Beer was the way to go then that is what I had (I had to draw the line at the Riders though).
I think to the battles on the Atari, the Dazzle Ice runs. Christmas time in Elkhorn and Regina. The family trip to Alberta where he managed to eject me from a two person bike and run me over in one smooth action. (What can I say he was cool). His airbands, with his secret strobe light used for maximum effect (okay at the time is was really cool)
Through all of this he did not complain about the young cousin that followed him around. (though now that I think about it the running me over thing may have been a subtle hint).
Uncle Harvey, Auntie Norlene, Aaron, Nicole and the kids I am thinking about you from a long way away, but mostly I find myself thinking about the coolest cousin a kid could have.

“ Nicole, Cole, Mitchell, Emma, and Nathan, my family's thoughts and support are with you all at this difficult time and for the time to come. I always knew Chad and Nicole to be a wonderful team, in marriage, business and in life. Chad was a fantastic human being and his children are a testament and reflection of that. I know they will all be a comfort and strength to you, Nicole, and with each other in the time to come.

Sincerely,

Tracey Woolsey & family

“ Nicole as I read all the wonderful thoughts people have shared about Chad it is obvious to me that many years ago when I told you that he was the one, a keeper, I was right. I am so sorry that your time together was cut short but I know you shared a great love and four wonderful children together. May you find peace and comfort in the memories that you hold dear. My deepest sympathy and prayers to you, Cole, Mitchell, Emma and Nate.

“ I am deeply deeply saddened to hear of Chad's passing over the weekend. I've worked with Chad for the past 5 or so years, and he was always a fun-loving person to be around with a great sense of humour. He's one of the best I've ever worked with, and it will not be same around here without him.

My most heartfelt condolences to Chad's family. He was a great man that was loved by all of us.

“ Dear Nicole and family,

Please accept our deepest sympathy with the passing of Chad. He was lucky to have such a great family and he knew it. The way that he would look at you and the kids or even just when he was talking about you he was so full of pride for his family.

He was a very good man, whom I feel very privileged to have known. There are no words that will make this time better for you, but if I knew a way I would do it in a heart beat. Memories will be wonderful and painful for a long time, but I know you wouldn't trade the time you had together.

Dear Nicole and Family,

We were stunned and saddened to hear of Chad's passing. We have dealt with Chad both when he was manager of the McLeod Savings and Credit Union, and now at ATB. We always found him to be honest, sincere, and friendly. Chad was very proud of his family, and his dedication to his family was admired. We watched Chad "light up" at the curling rink as his children curled. This sudden loss is something we have not had to handle, and is something we can not imagine. It is our sincere hope that you will find comfort from the Nanton community, and that memories of family times shared together will warm your hearts and help to shrink the huge hole the loss of Chad has created. His years of family life were far too short, but be proud of the enjoyment you added to his years. May you have the strength to face the days ahead, and may the pain of loss lessen as fond memories return.

Sincerely,

Terry and Patty Atkinson
