“ My deepest condolences to Don's family. I had the distinct pleasure of meeting Don when we were all in Saddlebrook after the 2013 flood. Full of laughter and mischief, he really kept us all going with all of his jokes, bursting into song without provocation and being just generally jolly. You will be well missed my friend by all that knew you. Sorry I couldn't attend his service, but we did have a Saddlebrook memorial luncheon in his honour. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Although I was never a resident at Saddlebrook, I met Don through other members of his Saddlebrook gang when I first moved to High River in 2016. As an added bonus, I discovered that we both were members of Saint Francis de Sales parish. I did not know him well - or long - but always think of him as a kind and gentle man with such a lovely smile. He will be sorely missed by all of his many friends and family. My condolences to you all. Rest in peace Don - it was my good fortune to have met you.

“ We knew Don mainly in Okotoks. He became friends with Don Barnes and hung around his violin shop. Always easygoing, friendly and fun to listen to and enjoy his jokes and laughter. Where I began relearning the fiddle, Don watched Mr. Barnes building them and that became his hobby for some years. He also tried playing too. Over some years we saw him regularly in Okotoks, and then when we moved to High River we reconnected again and spent time with him. Even in the hospice he was the same easygoing friendly guy and had all the aides there responding. We will miss seeing him but will remember his easygoing ways and friendship. Much respect to all his family.

“ My words cannot do justice in expressing my sympathies to the family. Don and I shared so many great times. The Sunday diners, men’s night at rio vista and our trip to the Grey Cup in Vancouver. There were so many other wonderful times. Your whole family treated me as the unofficial son. GOD bless all of you. Rest In Peace Popcorn

“ I was a classmate of Diane (Do) as well as a close friend of Dos as were all of our Holy Cross Class of September 1958. Don was always close to the class and most of us considered him one of the class. My husband Bob was a close friend and neighbor to Avalon during their youth in High River and we were both pleased that they found each other and had so many great years together. Our sincere condolences to the family.

“ My sincere condolences to all of Don’s family. I met Don when my husband and I operated the Rio Vista golf Course. He was such a great person. Always smiling, laughing and telling us a good story or joke. Right before my husband passed we joined him for dinner at Smitty's and as always enjoyed his company and humor. Rest in peace Don.

“ My deepest condolences to all of Don’s family. I had the opportunity of working with Don at Okotoks Walmart for 5 years. Couldn’t ask for a better guy to be a greeter, always happy always a smile on his face and always time for a chat. I always loved running into him when I was out and about in High River and having the chance for a hug and a quick chat or chuckle. He will be deeply missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing him. May your fond memories keep you strong through this very trying time, and bring you peace in years to come.

“ I remember when uncle Don flew out to California for Christmas he arrived at the airport before Grandma arrived and surprised all of us at the airport and spent Christmas with us. And the day after barbecuing on the back deck he was amazed that it could be over 70 degrees the day after Christmas he got so sunburned and had to fly back to Calgary during a blizzard

“ I first met Don at an acting class where the instructor commented that the two of us had an obvious connection and trust in each other. During the next few Windmill Theatre Players shows, that connection and trust definitely deepened. I can still picture us playing brothers, Jonathan and Mortimer, in Arsenic and Old Lace. Over the years, whenever we happened to see one another, we would have a great visit. I admired how Don handled the difficulties life gave him, with strength, his faith and of course his wonderful sense of humour. Our condolences to all of his family.

“ Dear Professor Higgins, your Eliza is so sad to learn of your passing. I'm remembering Don and all the fun times (and hard work) we had during Windmill Theatre Players productions, especially My Fair Lady in 1976. We formed a bond then that has lasted all these years. In the intervening years, whenever our paths crossed, we were always aware of that bond. I always enjoyed catching up with Don and was happy to know that he never lost the quirky sense of humour that was so endearing. Thank you Don, my friend for so many happy memories.

“ Dear Chris, Cathy, Marie, Roger and Michael,
I am so sorry for your great loss. Your dad was a very special person, my cousin, my friend and an inspiration. Underneath his ready sense of humour was a very deep and spiritual man with a wonderful attitude to life. He had a very strong faith and often said “God has been good to me.” God has been good to all of us who knew and loved your dad. Now we can honour him by trying to be a little bit like him. My deepest sympathy to all of you and your families.
