“ Condolences Lyons Family.

Gwen was one of my favorite teachers, and later in life my best library patron. Her interests and talents were many and varied, from her Ham radio, painting, rock collecting, to any kind of needle work. Keeping Gwen in reading material was a challenge. I missed our weekly visits when Gwen moved to Calgary and hoped the place she moved to had access to a good library. She was a kind, intelligent and gentle person, a privilege to have known her.

“ Gwen was the eldest of thirteen children As the biggest sister much of the child rearing fell upon her shoulders. See the tribute wall for an image of the first ten.

“ Although I didn't know Gwen well, I will always remember the good fortune that I had to give her a ride a few years ago. During the 3 hour trip from Edmonton to Calgary she talked my ear off and I will always remember her as a spirited and spunky character who was full of life. Rest in peace Gwen.

“ Dear Members of Gwen's Family,
What a great picture of your Mom that you have chosen; I remember that smile, and how her face lit up. Gwen loved her family and would have her face light up with that smile whenever she was asked about her "kids", even when they were all adults. Although I was on the teaching staff at JT Foster for only a few years with Gwen, so I did not know her well, I will always think of her kindness, especially to those students whose home life did not give them the support they needed. Through her retirement, I remember the great joy Gwen got from her pursuit of art/painting. I will also think of Gwen as she took her dog for a walk. After 99 years I am sure that there are many great memories of happy times shared together, and much to celebrate about Gwen's life. Although we are never ready to say that final good-bye, and it is always difficult, we are comforted by all for which we have to be thankful that was provided by a life well-lived. May your fond memories of your Mom soon fill all your thoughts, and may they continue to bring a smile to your face, and a warmth to your heart.
Sincerely,
