“ Growing up, Gordon was always one of those individuals who was larger than life for me. Big laughter, unimpeachable character and that ‘store’, the ultimate fantasy for anyone. Sadly lacking in our times, he will be remembered...

“ My family and I send condolences for your recent loss. Gordon (and all of his family)always showed unfailing kindness to us. Some of my most vivid childhood memories are of riding in his jeep, off-road, through the fields near our home (when he was a much-younger man and we were very small boys), and of happy afternoons spent playing/rummaging behind the scenes at Crown Surplus. I'm happy he lived so long and so well, despite the challenges of his recent years.

I know Gordon was very proud of you, John-he expressed as much to me on a number of occasions. We're thinking of you, and would surely have planned to visit you but for the current pandemic.

“ In the last decade of my father’s life, Gordon and I were sadly estranged. I’m very fortunate though to have a heart full of 50 years of love and cherished memories of my dad. He was a very kind and generous man to everyone. He laughed easily and adored his son John who was at his side until the very end. I will miss my father and the family we were with all my heart. Goodbye daddy.
