“ Hi Caroline, I just want you to know that if you need anything, anything at all, please do not hesitate to contact me. I cannot tell you how sorry and saddened I am to hear about your loss. Life works in mysterious ways and no one knows what lies ahead for any of us. My sincere condolences to you and your family. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Dear Caroline, I was shocked to read of Glynn's passing and can not imagine the grief you are now enduring. I am still in Arizona but will come to see you when I return to Nanton. I will always remember Glynn for his love of visiting, and his stories. I understand your decision to return Glynn to Nova Scotia, and feel that is best. Although your pain of loss is great at this time, may you soon have only fond memories of happy times enjoyed together to bring comfort at times when you need it, and joy as you relive those happy times. It was obvious that you were a very close couple. Cherish all your memories; pride yourself in knowing that you enriched Glynn's life although it was much too short. May the thoughts and prayers of others help to provide you much needed strength at this time.

Sincerely,
Patty Atkinson

“ Hi, Caroline, I am so sorry and sad to hear about Glynn's passing away. I know that there is nothing I can say to ease the pain, but please know that you are in my heart and prayers. If there is anything I can do, if you need someone to talk to, just reach out and remember that you are surrounded by people who care for you.

My deepest condolences.
