“ I have such happy memories of Mary: her many contributions to the community, her constant interest in how and what all of us were doing and her wonderful columns in the Nanton News. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.

“ Mary was such a great lady. She was a good friend to my parents, Mary and Dwight Powell. Mary even traded rooms at the lodge so my folks could have rooms across from each other. She will be missed.

“ Aunt Mary, always ready for a trip West to the homestead, Muirhead and Braehead Schools, The Gap and Chain Lakes. She liked to tell of telephoning her older sister Marjorie in the evening who would always say "ohh, it's sister Mary..." They would usually, at the same time, both be rinsing out "unmentionables" in their bathroom sinks in their respective old age homes. They greatly enjoyed the shared conspiracy of knowing what they were doing was against their institutions' rules. Trips home will be greatly diminished by not having you to visit Aunt Mary.
