

Mrs. Patricia Barr

May 7, 1936 - June 16, 2013

After an extremely courageous and lengthy battle with illness, Patricia passed away peacefully in her home in High River, Alberta at the age of 77 years. She is survived by her daughters, Laura Cooper of Vancouver, Roberta of New York City, and Kara (Sioux) of Calgary; mother Minnie Giebelhaus; brother Rodney; sister Joanne Bates, members of the Barr Family, as well as many extended family members. Patricia is predeceased by her adoring husband Gordon; father William; first husband Richard Cooper; brother Ronald and sister Wanda Rothe. Pat was born in Vegreville, Alberta and raised on a farm, from an early age demonstrated her keen interest in helping others, especially in caring for her younger twin sisters. She was determined to pursue her passion of having a career in nursing, and began her training at the Royal Alexandra Hospital College of Nursing in Edmonton. During this period she met Rick Cooper. In 1958, she graduated as a Registered Nurse moving swiftly into professional roles at the Charles Camsell Hospital, further developing her dedicated belief in advocacy for supportive, comprehensive patient care. In 1962, the young couple married and moved to Calgary to start a family. Pat always maintained a strong dedication to family activities and with her work at the Colonel Belcher Hospital in Calgary for over 20 years; she held various positions as a nursing supervisor, administrator, and later taught nursing skills to young students throughout the Calgary region until retirement. Pat was a very creative soul and enjoyed drawing, painting, ceramics, gardening, and bird watching. She was an excellent seamstress, both for herself and her children, designing and assembling many costumes, along with Christmas stockings for multiple generations of family. After her gradual move into retirement, she met her loving companion Gordon and after a lengthy courtship they married in 2000, moving to the relaxed setting of High River. Pat loved to be physically active and was involved in tai-chi, cycling, a local hiking group, the Grandparent Reading Program in elementary schools, and enjoyed traveling with Gordon to Greece, Cuba and throughout Canada. Her steadfast positive outlook, graceful spirit, and elegant compassionate presence touched numerous lives. A special heartfelt thanks goes out to all of her health caregivers from the region. “ Dear Roberta, Kara, and family,
Please pardon my tardiness in sending you my deepest sympathy. The last 2 months in High River have been all-consuming! I am so glad your Mom didn't have to deal with the flood!! I also would have attended her service but found out about her death after it was all over.

Your Mom was so special to me! We spent many hours together tending to her needs. Funny how I always came away from those visits feeling like I'd been the one tended to. No matter how tough things were for her, she always asked about my family and knew each one by name even though she'd never met them!! She was so strong, smart, and never lost her interest in people and the world around her. I will never forget her.

Both of you did your best in a tough situation. She was so proud of you and your achievements. Seems to me the apples didn't fall far from the tree! Wishing you comfort, strength and blessings,

Marilyn Hari, RN

“ Kara and Roberta;

I am so very sorry for the loss of your dear mother Pat. She was like a 2nd mother to me while growing up. Jars of pickles, HUGE sandwiches and genuine love from her to me, but also all your friends. She was and will always be a beautiful and caring woman, and my 2nd Mom.

I am passing along deepest sympathies from my Mom (Donna Nelson), Father (Bill Nelson) and little brother Greg. Kim and I hope we can help in any way over the near future to make this a little easier on you all. Sioux, you have been there for Kara and most recelty Roberta. I have not known you long, but I know you are doing all you can and being the strength that they need at this time. You helped Kara while her Mom was struggling and stood by her. I am sure I can speak for all her friends that we thank you for being her wall. Someone to lean on, someone to cry on and knowing Kara as I do, she will be the same for you should you need it.

Love you all and be strong, but don't forget to cry. Never a bad thing to cry sometimes! Especially you strong hearted/willed Cooper girls.

With love always!

“ Dear Kara and Sioux,

Suzette and I are thinking of you both lots during this difficult time. Sioux, your tremendous support to Kara and to her mom this past while has not gone unnoticed. Kara has drawn tremendous strength from you. Kara, as you know, I only had the pleasure of meeting your mom a couple of times, but I was very impressed by her nevertheless. Reading all these lovely tributes shows what a good person she was and how many people's lives she touched. I see many of these attributes that people are describing in you. Like your mom, you're a trooper, Kara! You're "Cooper the trooper" to me (and "coupe de ville," as well). We'll see you tomorrow at the celebration of your mother's life at High River United Church.

Love always, Tonya

“ Roberta and Cara, it is with heavy heart that we share the loss of a spirited and lovely lady. Your mother was very lucky to have two special daughters in her life. I really got to spend more time with her since moving to High River after losing touch with her in Calgary. She always wanted me to keep her informed on how my family was doing. She truly was a sincere and loving person. May your strength and courage keep you both strong during this time of grief. Love your friend Charlene

“ Cara and Roberta we extend our heartfelt sympathy on the recent passing of your Mom, followed by the impact of the flooding. Our hearts go out to you both at this time. It is our sincerest prayer that you are safe, and that you will be met with an abundance of love and grace in the days to come. Your Mom was a beautiful, strong intelligent, and caring woman whose attributes are apparent in each of you. She was deeply loved by each and every one of us. The love and caring that we witnessed from each of you has touched, blessed and inspired our lives in ways that will forever be in our hearts. It was an honor to support Pat, Gord and your family. We witnessed tremendous acts of love, kindness, and grace over the years from each of you, Gord and those in the community who loved and supported Pat and yourselves. Our sincerest wish is that peace, love, and grace be with you now and all the days of your lives. Sincerely, the High River Homecare Team
