

Mr. Ronald Clark Allan

October 16, 1935 - September 27, 2019

Mr. Ron Allan of High River, Alberta passed away peacefully at home at the dimming of the day on September 27th at the age of 83. Dad was an extraordinary Father, devoted, loved, he will be so missed and always cherished.

He was an amazing Grandfather, Brother, Uncle. He was a passionate fisherman and loved the outdoors, a listening ear, a storyteller, a rememberer of all his family's history, a champion at crosswords, a coffee shop friend, and so many other things to all of us.

He will be missed by his 7 children, Don (Lana), Randy (Faye), Debbie (Craig), Scott (Laurie), Cindy (Garnet), Steve, Julie (Dave).

Thirteen Great Grandchildren, Penelope, Jillian, Ben, Hunter, Myan, Keylan, Parker, Shae, Graycee, Hanna, Brynleigh, Lainey, Luke

He will also be remembered by his brother's, Tom Allan, Bob Allan, brother-in-law Ken (Carol) Stauffer and many nieces and nephews.

He was predeceased by his beloved wife, Doris in 1968, daughter Connie in 1991, and grandson Tanner in 2017.

Ron's story started on October 16, 1935. He was the youngest of 8 children born to Clark and Barbara Allan in Turner Valley, Alberta. He grew up in the Black Diamond, Turner Valley area. This is where he met Doris and after she passed he moved his family to High River, Alberta in 1970.

Dad was a very humble man who came from humble beginnings. He didn't expect too much ado about anything for himself. He worked hard and lived a simple life. He had a saying for everything. One of those being "Charity Begins at Home" and he lived by that, working so hard to keep his family together after Mom passed away at such a young age leaving him with 8 children to raise, the youngest being just a baby of 5 months. He never remarried, staying devoted to his one and only. One of his favorite sayings he spoke to us often when we were troubled, was “This too shall Pass”.

His house was always a safe place for all of us or anyone who needed his sage advice... he was supportive but never intrusive, just a kind ear that would listen.

He spent his life with his brother Bob at his side. They saw each other pretty much every day whether working together in their younger years or going for coffee every day to meet up with their coffee shop friends. Uncle Bob moved in with Dad in 2013 after the “great” flood.

Ron’s children and grandchildren were his pride and joy. He was proud of the fact that he helped build such a big strong Allan clan. Time spent at Grandpa’s house was very special for all his grand kids and holds a fond memory for each one of them.

Dad, in the corner of your living room now sits your big empty chair that no one else will ever be able to fill. If only our walls could talk, what stories they would tell of all the love and laughter and adventures we had with you. You were all worn out Pa and now it’s your time to rest. You more than earned your crown as a Dad and Grandpa.

Memorial donations may be made to the Arthritis Society, 150 – 110 Quarry Park Blvd SE, Calgary, T2C 3G3, <http://www.arthritis.ca>

“ My deepest sympathy for the Allan families.
There was no finer man than Ron Allan! I have always admired what a gentleman he was. He had a contagious smile and laugh. What really resonates with me the most is how he raised eight kids on his own and did a beautiful job. Leaving behind that legacy is truly a testament to the really wonderful man, Ron was.

“ Don, Randy, Deb, Scott, Cindy, Steve & Julie & families: I have been thinking about Ron and all of you a lot this week. There are a lot of great memories. Ron was an exceptional person. He was extremely smart and could talk about so many subjects. I think he had a photographic memory. Ron was a superb conversationalist and storyteller and had a great sense of humor. I was always impressed how he was able to do so much with the severe arthritis he had. He never complained and did everything he wanted to do, even tying fishing knots with those gnarled fingers. But that is the way he tackled any problems he encountered. He was a great friend and yes, he also gave me a lot of sage advice. Most of all, I was amazed at how easy he made it look to raise 8 children by himself. Yes, he worked very hard at it and he dedicated his life to you. But he never lost his temper and did any yelling, which was something considering all the responsibilities he had. I remember when the younger kids were old enough to go out on Friday and Saturday nights and Ron and I would be having a late-night coffee in his kitchen. As you arrived back home one by one, each of you without any prompting would come into the kitchen and talk to Ron for a while. There was definitely a special bond between Ron and you. But that is how he, without any preaching or yelling, quietly taught you how to live. You always had his backing, even when he was relating some of your trials and hijinks. He was the greatest father, and I often bragged about him to my friends in Calgary. I'm sure he felt a tremendous amount of satisfaction that you all developed into solid citizens. You all are his treasured legacy. I hope the many happy memories of Ron will help you through this difficult time. Don Doughty

“ So sorry, Allan family, to hear of Ron's passing. Condolences from Shannon and myself. When I listened to the news, it made me think of a time of about 40 some years ago. I and Ron and a couple of others took a hockey team to Great Falls for a tournament; we were the chaperones. We got the players all fed and watered and billeted. Ron said to me, and the other two fellows, okay boys, let's paint the town red. All the best to the Allan family at this sad time.

“ I remember as a little kid wanting to have a sleepover with my cousin, Debbie, cause we couldn’t play together enough. My mom would say no as there were eight kids already for Uncle Ronnie to look after, but he would say it was okay. They could add one more kid to the bunch. He always made me feel so welcome. And the stories he could tell.

“ To the Allan family: Every time I walked through that red door I felt the love and warmth of Mr. Allan and your wonderful family. I always felt welcome there especially at your crowded kitchen table where you would make room for me and even hand me a plate to share your meal. I especially loved when your Dad brought groceries home and I would help unpack the best selection of cookies I ever saw! All the kinds my Mom would never buy! I can't express enough love, gratitude and respect I had for your Dad...he was an amazing man who taught me a lifetime of lessons. I'm so happy to be friends with your "little baby".
