“ Sue...I love you. I love you for the amazing women you were...Most of all Sue, I love the dear friend you were to my mom...You made such a positive impact to my world as a kid growing up through that friendship. Thanks for always being there for my mom. Sue, I'll never forget you.

“ Hey Sue,
To many we might be unlikely friends. Initially we were bound by a mutual love of your children. But over the years we became friends and family. I will miss you. Rest easy. Xo

“ They say that our cousins are our first friends...In my case Susan was there with those big brown eyes smiling at me. I wish I could join you all on Saturday to meet her children and Grandchildren and to give my dear Auntie Phyll a big hug. My thoughts are with you.

Love and Sympathy to all.
from Cousin Debbie.

“ Hi Phyllis. Denzil and I are so sad to hear of the loss of your daughter. Your grief must be just unimaginable. To lose a child and so young must be tremendous. Our love to you and your family..... Denzil & Rose Merriman. (your former neighbours.)

Rosel Merriman - May 15, 2015 at 02:45 PM

“ Susan you've been a dear friend of mine for 35+ years...we've watched the kids grow up and then the grandkids came along! I remember our conversation on 'that's why we had kids....to have our precious grandkids'. You always said how much they all meant to you. I'll miss our talks but most of all the laughs & fun times we had. Justin & Chelsey, I hope all the great memories of your mom will ease the pain down the road. Love and hugs to you both and your families, the Wren Family, mom Phyllis, Becky & Rick.

I will miss you always my friend....rest in peace until we meet again.

“ I was most saddened to learn of Susan's passing. We worked together for quite a few years at Victoria Mental Health and missed her when she moved to Alberta. A great gal that always seemed upbeat whatever the circumstances. My deepest condolences to the family.

“ Suzie Q, I have known you for a long time as you were my sister Joanne's bestie. I was very fortunate to have many laughs with you over the years . I loved that you were always so keenly interested in my family and my children and were the best listener. You were never judgmental but always allowed everyone to have their own opinion no matter how silly.

Loved you Sue and will miss you

Anita Jarmolicz - May 13, 2015 at 11:30 AM

“ My big sis has left us too soon. We cherish the time we had in this life and the amazing legacy she showered upon us with her devoted and wonderful children; Justin and Chelsey and grand babies, Garrett, Peyton and Hudson. We will take care of them and will always make sure they and all new babes know how much she adored them. This is truly a heartbreaking time in our family but the memories will get us through...eventually.

I will miss you popping in for visits and your helping hand, your beautiful smile , your popovers and your gravy, your texts and phonecalls. You attendance at every event that Tori and Ally had and the strength and love you shared with us. Quite frankly I miss you like crazy and this sucks shit. But we will be ok. You would have said hmf and rolled your eyes and told us to suck it up. love you suzieq....forever and always. See you in the Next Place

“ My sister sue was an amazing person and my heart is broken. You were not only my sister but auntie sue to Britt and J (as you so fondly called Her) and a fun loving beautiful sister in law to Den. Of all the people I know in this world you were the most resilient matter what happened in your life you always landed on your feet with grace and strength like no other. You were an amazing mom to Justin and Chels and an awesome grandma. Most of all you made Mom and Dad so proud as their daughter. We will miss you every single day until we see you again. I love you with all my heart you are a beautiful example of love faith and hope. Forever in our hearts

“ I went to high school with Susan, lost touch over that years, but had a chance to visit her in Victoria gosh around 15 years ago. We picked up immediately and it was if all those years hadn't gone by. She was that kind of person, so easy to be with. My condolences to Susan's family.

“ My wonderful sister Sue you fought a long 8 month battle with the strength that you carried through your life. You were always there if we needed you and the most loving Grandma (Nana Sue). The helicopter has landed, no more hovering..

“ Sue, Susie, and even Granny Q- I can't remember a time when you were not part of my life. From when our now grown children were little toddlers, Justin on stage at 4 years old, singing "Hey Hey Good Lookin" to Chelsey who could barely speak, but could tell us "she was not pretty she was gorgeous"..., to now, with them all grown up and starting families of their own, you were so proud. What they learned from you is your undying, unconditional love you had for them... And your grand children, seeing how you cherished them so much.. This will be your lasting legacy. For me, I will always reflect back on our amazing freindship, you were there for me always, no what, no matter where. I will miss you always...

“ Thru J A, and out at Seba Beach I met Sue. It took Sue and I a while to figure out the connection and that we liked the same things . The connection being her sister Karen. Sue was a commanding figure and you knew that she wanted you to know she was not afraid to voice her opinion. Being the guy I am , I took great pleasure in taking the opposite view of anything she said , just to get under her skin (which we both enjoyed), and the resulting " conversations " were quite colourful ! I was at a loss for words when I found out about her Cancer, but amazed at her way of dealing with it.....straight forward. What turned out from that was a direct openness about mine when I found I had Cancer, Sue taught me how to be ' Real ' . That is the word that I feel best describes Sue , for she was never fake. The world needs more like her, and all that knew her should agree. I am saddened for the family's and the worlds loss of one strong woman .

“ We have lost a family member. Bands are families and when Rick was part of the Prairie Fire band, our "family" travelled all across North America. Justin was a baby and literally cut his teeth on the road in Texas, Mississippi...Wyoming...maybe that's part of the reason he grew up to be such a great singer, musician and entertainer. We know Susan was very proud of her children and a great mother and mentor. She was taken way too young, but her dedication to her family and the positive influence she had on everyone around her will not be forgotten. Rest in peace.

“ Susan was an amazing friend and co-worker. We spent some time together last summer as she graciously open her home to me while my daughter was in a soccer tournament in Airdrie. I'm grateful I got to spend that time with her. This breaks my heart. My prayers and thoughts are with you at this time and always..

“ Daughter, sister, mother, aunty, grandmother and friend

When someone we love dies, it seems as if time stands still. And silence a quiet sadness... Often can be felt, not just heard, a longing for one more day...one more word...one more touch...And we may not understand why God chose to have her leave this earth so soon or why she had to leave before we were ready to say goodbye, but little by little, we will begin to remember not just that she died , but that she lived. And that her life gave us memories too beautiful to forget. We will see her again someday, in a place where there is no parting. A place where there are no words that mean goodbye...We love you Sue xoxo forever in our hearts
