

Mr. Wayne Charles Porter

May 27, 1949 - February 12, 2018

Mr. Wayne Porter, beloved husband of the late Susan Porter (nee Romberg) of Nanton, Alberta passed away peacefully at the High River Hospital on February 12, 2018 at the age of 68 years.

Wayne is survived by two loving daughters, Lindsay Porter of Nanton and Jodie (Byron) Wehlage of Milk River; Granddaughters who were the sunshine to his life, Brylee Wehlage (6) and Kinlee Wehlage (4); brother Gerald (Diana) Porter of Nanton; sister Judy Poeschel of Mississauga, ON. He loved his many nieces and nephews and was kindly thought of as a “surrogate” uncle to many of the young people he had in his life. He will also be lovingly remembered by his special friend Linda Ormson of High River.

Besides his loving wife of 40 years, Susan, Wayne was predeceased by his parents Norman and Margaret.

By trade Wayne was a mechanic, which he worked at for many years until retiring and becoming Susan’s main care giver. Anyone who knew him knew that he was amazing at working with his hands: very skilled at carpentry, mechanical repairs, had a green thumb that would make most gardener’s jealous and was able to fix just about anything. He loved the outdoors, hunting, fishing and wild life. He loved being surrounded by family, friends, and his two granddaughters would always make him smile. He enjoyed when friends would gather, engage in a beverage and share stories. Wayne loved to laugh.

A Celebration of Wayne’s Life was held on Friday, February 23rd at 1:00 p.m. at the Nanton-Parkland United Church. If desired memorial donations may be made to the Nanton-Parkland United Church (2121 21st. St, Nanton, Ab, T0L 1R0) or the charity of the donor’s choice. “ My sincerest sympathies to Lindsay, Jody and Family, Judy and Family, and Gerald, We will always have fond memories of Wayne and Susan, a great couple, and warm, friendly individuals. I never heard Wayne complain although I'm sure he had "those" days just like the rest of us. He was a quiet, compassionate man, with a warm smile. Lindsay and Jody, pride yourselves in knowing you enriched your dad's life; he so loved you both. He left you far too soon, but may your memories of happy times enjoyed together bring you comfort now and in the days to come. May knowing that others will always think of Wayne as a super guy help to ease your pain of loss.
Sincerely, Terry and Patty Atkinson

“ Wayne was an exemplary individual whose kindness, generosity and caring were given to others without question or concern. He helped me a number of times and always demonstrated a genuine contentment with knowing he had helped improve another's life. I am grateful to have had the privilege to spend time with Wayne, through my exceptional friendship with his daughter Lindsay, and will respectfully model his character, in celebration of a life sincerely lived. My condolences to Wayne's family, during his final closing chapter. He will be missed. With all my love,

Katrina Kellner.

“ This is very sad news. Wayne...where could a person start on the man he was? He was a compassionate caring man who did so so much for others,never asking for anything in return. He respected everyone. He rescued me and my boys on more than one occasion when we lived east of Stavely, my husband worked away and our car was never reliable. He would drive out and either fix it right there or tow it to the garage..he charged me minimal if anything, and it didn't matter if it was closing time or not. Wonderful wonderful man...Rest in Peace Wayne...I will never forget the things you did for myself and my family.
