“ I just stumbled upon the news this week. Miss Mahaffy was a kindhearted and compassionate teacher. To this day, I tell my piano students of the time that Miss Mahaffy sent me home to get my Four Star ear training and sightreading book, after "forgetting" it one time too many. Because of that, my studio library is well stocked.

Her laugh was infectious. I hope that she, Eleanor, and Aunt Gypsy are happily reunited in Heaven with their dogs and horses.

“ Elizabeth was larger than life and full of joy. She brought light and laughter wherever she went. A wonderful piano player, teacher, and friend. Her legacy will live on in those she touched, and I am so blessed to be among those fortunate enough. I look forward to seeing you again Ms Mahaffy - in the Great Halls of music and peace, where we can play hymns and sing together once again. Love you.

“ Elizabeth will be missed on 2nd floor!! Her smile and her love for her stuffed animals or babies. Church was my favorite time to see her as she enjoyed it so very much. Thinking of her family that I also will miss seeing around the unit.

“ Elizabeth was a very kind soul of whom we were very fond. She loved her dogs and music, not necessarily in that order. She will be reunited with her twin sister, Eleanor and their music will reverberate through the heavens/. Rest in peace, Elizabeth.

“ Elizabeth was my piano teacher growing up and introduced me to a new world of expression. Because of her fun-loving and rather eccentric nature, instead of getting upset with me for not practicing, she would change our lesson into something I was good at - like playing by ear and sight reading, and that skill has continued with and beyond music and makes me who I am today. She will be missed by many, she was a wonderful teacher and friend.

Lots of love, Elizabeth. I know you are surrounded by your dogs and are probably playing a piano duet with your sister right now.

“ Elizabeth was a part of our family for over twenty five years. She was a gentle, fun-loving person who lived a joyful life of faith. She reveled in her life of freedom at Gladys Ridge with her many dogs (and cats!) until she moved into our home with us. In her later stages of life she was cared for with generosity by the transition team and the second floor staff of High River Hospital. She was a wonderful companion and friend and will be dearly missed.
