“ I met Amy in the early 1990's when I started attending High River United Church. Over the years, we worked alongside one another on Mission and Service projects, visited over coffee and discussed books as we browsed through the book section at the church's yearly garage sales. It was always interesting to get Amy's take on any subject that came up during conversations or group discussions. I will remember her for her humour, her always present smile, the lively discussions which could become debates at times and her passion for outreach and service at High River United Church. Our thoughts are with the family as you grieve the loss of this lovely woman.

“ *I first met Amy in 2013, while I was visiting my brother Rod, he living in Canada and I in England. I remember the twinkle in Amt's eye and her great kindness. They then visited us together in England in 2014, and by then they were a loving couple, fun and good for one another. God Bless Amy.

“ 8 weeks after loosing my Dad, we say goodbye to his partner and love. Her kindness and caring spirit will be missed. Amy Armstrong remained thoughtful and hopeful as she lost Rod, and then her battle with a cancer that burned fast as a prairie fire; she made peace with it all. So brave.
