

Mr. Andrew Graham Bouck

March 13, 1954 - May 30, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of our dear brother Andrew Graham Bouck.

Andy was born in Oakville Ontario on March 13, 1954 to George and Sheila Bouck (predeceased) and left us peacefully in his sleep on Friday, May 30, 2025.

Andy was a terrific friend to those he chose and would go out of his way to treat them to his fabulous baking and cooking.

He loved his friends and family fiercely and was never afraid to boast of their accomplishments. He always spoke his mind and loved a good debate with whomever would partake, sometimes whether they wanted to or not. He loved cooking, football, dogs, a good book and all things Ohio State.

Andy will be dreadfully missed by his sisters Adrienne Brown, Elizabeth McNeill (Drew), Sarah Baskerville (Barrie) and Charlotte Bouck (Jeremy) his nieces Lauren Kirkman (Mike) Alyshia Grace Hobday (William), Claire Baskerville (Brandon) and Julia Brown (Brendan), his Nephew Curtis McNeill (SAMMI), his great niece Natalie Kirkman.

Andy is also survived by his great nephews Owen Kirkman, Wyatt Odger and Banjo Weir and his brother from another mother Paul Lafleur and his son Zach. Andy also leaves behind his best friend and neighbour, Sandy Jackson, whom he was extremely fond of.

A Celebration of Andy's Life will be held at the Mucky Duck Pub in High River AB, on Saturday, June 14, 2025, at 11:30 am.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Canadian Blood Services in memory of Andrew Bouck.

Caring for the family is Lyle Reeves Funerals of High River (Craig Snodgrass) 403.652.4242.

“ My fondest memory from all those years we were close friends has to be our summer golf tournaments at the old Glen Abbey Gold course in Oakville. We'd play our own version of the various PGA tournaments with the day's winner taking the figurative first prize money ... Andy won millions while I picked up the loose change ... it was great fun ... golf was never the same again when Andy left Oakville and I haven't played since then. In the intervening years we had sporadic contact and I always thought we might see each other again. Alas it did not happen. My life is poorer for having missed that opportunity. RIP my friend.

“ We were great friends with Andy back in public and high school. I never found out why we lost touch, but I do remember with great fondness how we used to hang around as kids. He was always full of fun.
