I just found out about Angie's passing, it broke my heart, I met Angie at Hillcrest . Angie was amazing, beautiful kids and her husband. I messaged with Angie from time to time, I got alarmed, as she always messaged back, then I found this, very sorry. Condolences to her daughter's, husband and family members, Angie will always be in my heart.

“ Angie was our parents’ first grandchild and the baby girl that made me an auntie. Words cannot really express our grief, nor adequately convey our condolences to Michelle and Eric, Craig, Erica and Elisabeth, Jeremy, Angie, Carolyn and Leighton, Trevor and Tara, and other aunts and uncles, cousins. I wanted to share a couple of our favourite photos. That smile was contagious and made each person feel very special.

“ Angie had such a beautiful, cheerful disposition. She was always so encouraging and kind to me and countless others. She took a special interest in cheering me on as a young adult when I was facing some big life choices. She will be greatly missed. Love and prayers to all the family and friends grieving... Our loss, but her gain. Praise the Lord for the gift Angie was to us, and that she is home with Him now. Sara Wirth (Lipp)

“ We were lucky to watch Angie grow up, attend her wedding, and become a mother. Her love of music started at an early age and she could play anything on a piano! (I especially liked the honky-tonk versions). Her smile lit up a room and her laughter was contagious. Keep jammin’ in heaven, Angie!
We’ll miss you,
