“ *Aubrey, it was a blessing to know him. He was neighbor, friend and with great respect and honor I call him uncle.
A lot of good memories to keep and a kind spirit to remember.
Rest in peace and know that you will ALWAYS be remembered.

“ Close family friend and neighbour!! So sad to hear of his passing. There are tons of memories but here's one that sticks for me: Waaay back in the day, Pat Miller and I curled with Aubrey (Spud to us) and Wilton. I recall a bonspiel in Whitecourt. Afterwards Pat and I drank beer along with them and on the way home I had to stop for a pee so bad (I'm still crossing my legs with the memory) but managed to hang in there to home. It was a privilege to be curling with the Sides boys so it was important to play the role.

Aubrey had a bigger-than-life presence, filling a room with body, voice and personality. He will not be forgotten.

“ I have so many memories with uncle Aubrey that it's hard to know where to begin...

- many visits with my mom to the family farm with Uncle Aubrey and Uncle Wilton

- delicious morning breakfasts (always really early...lol!)

- uncle Aubrey and uncle Wilton getting up before the sun to care for the cattle

- playing on the haybails

-having Uncle Aubrey move the cows from one pasture to the next and feeling great to be able to be there

- playing cards at many family functions

-dancing with Uncle Aubrey at Sangudo dances (and on his feet when I was younger)

- big, smooch kisses

- many fishing trips where uncle Aubrey and uncle Wilton would get the rods ready for me and always took care of the fish after they were caught

- the wonderful school bus uncle Aubrey fixed up and took us to Alaska in. So many laughs on that bus! Singing with my cousin Shelley to uncle Aubrey as he drove and him always seeming to enjoy the singing.

-my beautiful mom and uncle Aubrey together.

-uncle Aubrey and uncle Wilton allowing Shelley and I to play on the tractors

- many amazing Christmas' at aunty May and uncle Bob's house with the whole family there

-the trip to Sides lake

-getting and giving a huge hug from/to uncle Aubrey when my mom passed away...

There are probably many more memories I have missed here but they all certainly have positively shape my life into a great one!

Thank you uncle Aubrey and rest in peace!
