“ Donna and Family. I had the privilege of working with Bob at RSA and learned much from him.He said a lot with few words and had a dry sense of humour that made working with him fun.
We will always remember when he retired and visited us in Nova Scotia and was sitting on the rocks at Peggy's Cove in his cowboy hat and cowboy boots looking out at the ocean for hours. A real Western boy in awe of the power of the waves. We hope you are looking at them now.

“ My condolences to the Millar family. I worked with Bob for many years and enjoyed his sometimes off the wall sense of humour. I know he enjoyed his retirement years in High River and the coffee gang at DQ will also mourn his passing. Wherever he is, he's out of the pain and suffering he experienced.

“ When I started working for RSA in 1992, Bob was the first to come by, introduce himself and welcome me aboard. After that we became good friends at work and he was always there to help me out and provide his wisdom whenever it was needed, which was quite often. Bob was a great guy with a great sense of humour; we shared lots of laughs. Lucille and I would like to express our condolences to Donna and family on their loss of this fine gentleman.
