“ We had so many good times. Jean, Carol and I loved to play golf. We weren't very good, but we laughed a lot and had fun. When I came up to visit we would play a lot of Farkel. She liked my money. My sister, you left too soon.

“ Carol was such an amazing woman. Always ready with a good story and lots of laughter. Her love for her family and friends was unconditional. I will miss out long phone calls but hold memories of all our fun times together close to my heart. My condolences to Carol's family. Love and memories live forever.

A lovely lady, Carol was always concerned for me when I had to drive home to Nanton from the Manor in the snow! Your kindness will never be forgotten. Condolences to the family. May you rest in peace.
