“ My condolences go to Chantal's parents and to Tim. What a shock learning of Chantal's passing. So many good memories of Chantal from the time we took riding lessons together to the shared eggnog at Christmas time when walking home was the only option. Rosemary, know that I am thinking of you at this time. My prayers go out to all that is feeling this incredible loss.

“ Chantal was by far the hardest working individual I know. She was frugal and charitable. Anything Chantal decided to do, she did extremely well.

Her love for food lead her to all parts of the world. She loved her trips to Cambodia and Vietnam and at times mentioned selling it all and moving abroad.

On her last trip to Thailand, Chantal and Tim volunteered at Soi Dog Rescue and treatment centre. She found it hard to leave after being involved for a couple weeks.

She loved her dogs past & present.

In lieu of flowers, Donations may be made to “soidog.org”

There are no replacements,
I will miss Chantal Forever.

God rest her soul Rene. She was a bright and driven women with a "can do" spirit. A strong woman with an infectious laugh, coy smile, a love for dogs and creativity. Chantal made her own rules, lived her own way and did it with style, passion and purpose - showing us all that success is commitment, dedication and focus. If Chantal got an idea SHE turned it into gold. These gifts of spirit will stay forever in mine, to remind myself and those I touch, that Chantal's spirit will live on forever.

I will deeply miss Chantel. Our friendship was one of very early mornings, First at the circus. She always greeted me with a shining smile and a cup of rocket fuel coffee. she loved what she did and it showed in her craft service. I will miss you and know you are in a peaceful place.
