“ Bernice and boys - My husband and I remember Dan as a quiet, pleasant man who used to ride our commuter bus (Good Company Travel Inc. it was, once upon a time) into downtown Calgary. Also, Dan waving to me if I happened to drive past your corner lot when he was out there. A few months ago, while walking back from No Frills, the two of you were outside so I stopped and we had a few minutes' visit. I am very glad that we did. Please know that your family is in our thoughts.

“ *My Dear Bernice and Family
I haven't seen you or Danny for many, many years but was so sorry to hear of this sad news from my brother Larry. Please accept our sincere condolences to all of you.
We grew up living next door to the McDonald's for 15 years and so knew Danny very well at that time and had the pleasure of meeting you too.
My Husband and I and on behalf of Larry wish you calmness of heart and peace of mind at this very difficult time.
Love,
Bill and Elda Wrigley (née) Tremblay and Larry Tremblay*
