“ met Darren in our first year farming

, he came with a "rock" group to pick stones after planting potatoes together with Gary and Kevin , a lot of fun and they were intrigued with the fact I came from the Netherlands

We had met at the Broadway club and at Lakeside lodge where he was house keeping

I had rented a cabin there for 3 months

We " taught " each other a lot of stuff :)

good times

We promised eachother to visit someday , which sadly enough will not happen anymore ...

A life cut too short

our condolences

“ Met Darren when he was a teenager. Would come to my bar with his friends. A well-mannered young man that liked to party and be around his friends. On my wedding night Darren was working at the motel we stayed in. The kitchen was closed and me and the wife were hungry. Darren was nice enough to make us sandwiches. Many years ago. RIP Darren.

“ There are many tears being dropped with the loss of you, it is heartbreaking to know you are gone but, your laughter still rings in my ears. The best bro inlaw a girl could ask for, thank you for always being there and keeping the party rolling. You will never be forgotten we will be certain to say your name often when sharing a great memory and telling a funny tale of Darren Donovan. I love you big bro, until we meet again.

“ R.i.p. my friend , had some great times in our youth. Always had a great big smile and joke or prank to tell you , my heart is a little bit sad , but it is full of joy with all our good times we had in our teenage years. My deepest Sympathies to the family and his friends. Till we meet each other on the other side my friend. 🥺🥺🍻
