

Mr. David Gordon Gregory

June 29, 1961 - October 2, 2019

Dave Gregory of High River, Alberta passed away peacefully at home, at the age of 58, with his wife, kitties, and special friend , Leah (Treats) Collins (Langenhoff) at his side on October 2, 2019 after a courageous battle with cancer.

Dave is survived by his devoted wife and soul mate, Julie Allan. He was a cherished and devoted Dad to his 2 fur babies, Charlie and Jimmy. He also leaves to mourn his loss, his Mom, Betty Gregory; brother's Don, Gary (Lisa), sister's Karen, Lonnie (Ron); sisters-in-law; Debbie (Craig), Cindy (Garnet) brothers-in-law; Don (Lana), Randy (Faye), Scott (Laurie), Steve. He will also be fondly remembered by many aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, greats, cousins, and friends.

He was predeceased by his Dad, Gordon "Demps" Gregory in June 2014 and most recently his father-in-law, Ron Allan just prior to his own passing, as well as numerous relatives.

Dave was born and raised in Calgary, AB where he graduated from James Fowler High School. He attended SAIT, where he received his Business Diploma and Canadian Securities. Shortly after he worked in Vancouver, BC, then returned to Alberta to pursue sales.

Dave met the love of his life, Julie Allan in 1989. They moved to Canmore followed by Kelowna, BC in 1993 where he worked for the City of Kelowna Cemetery and later for Comcheq. They returned to High River in 2000 to lease and operate the Rio Vista Golf Course until it flooded in 2005 and closed shortly after. In 2003 he also contracted his services to Alberta Water Resources until his passing.

Dave was a reliable hard worker, dedicated hockey player with the Schmidt Bros. Hockey Team and deserved his title of "Slick Schmidt" #19. An avid golfer and a great cook. After Dave's Dad passed, he kept his promise to his Dad to keep a watch over his Mom, Betty where she resided next door. He was very well respected in the neighborhood, a man of integrity, and very helpful to others.

He had a great sense of humour and entertained us with tales of him and his buddies growing up. He had so much patience, spending time with each and every one of his nieces and nephews making them feel special by taking the time to go with them on bike rides, hiking, golfing and sharing "his" important lessons in life.

Dave I'm pretty sure if the fight for your life had a fair ref you would have won your battle hands down! Sadly, we all know life isn't always fair. You fought valiantly right to the bitter end!

You had so many close family and friends in your corner Dave... routing for your win. Maybe in the end it was your Dad, nephew Tanner and all the other angels waiting for you, who won.

You will be dearly missed and forever loved.

You will both always be such a precious memory from our first trip to Canada as you helped to make it so very special.*
Julie, we cannot imagine how much your heart is hurting right now and I wish I could reach my arms across the ocean and hug you tight. Dave will always be with you - in every early spring flower and freshly laid snowflake. Although in Australia, we are here for you, and our home will always be a home to you too. “ I would like to send my sincere condolences to Julie and the Gregory and Allan families.

Dave, you are now in rookie camp at the big hockey game in the sky and I know you will light it up! Please save me a spot for when I see you at the game; I am sure you will burn me with your latest moves. I will miss going through the “Top 40” stories of our lives with you, a true testament to a fun life well lived! You are the poster boy for the perfect friend! Dave, it is so sad that you are gone and your absence will leave a huge hole in the lives of many. Rest in peace buddy!

“ Oh I am gonna miss you cousin Dave. I loved that sense of humour you had and that quiet confidence, that showed us you were never rattled by things.

I loved the arguments about “a wink of water” you had with Gary from five right up until about age 20.

It was nice to see how much you loved Julie and how you would always introduce her:

“This is my wife Julie”

That was very classy of you Dave. We all knew how you felt about her from how you introduced her...you always set a good example for us and people were really drawn to you. I hope there is a hockey rink where you are.

“ I am going to miss you my handsome cousin. Remember the many happy hours we spent playing with Gary and Darren in the "bumpity hills" across from 64th Avenue in Calgary? You always had that shy smile that camouflaged a rapier wit and zinger one-liners. Julie my heart goes out to you. You are so patient, fearless, and loving. I am so grateful that David shared your love.

“ Dave...thanks for the memories. When I reflect on the kind of person you were, I remember a solid guy and the many laughs we shared. You always had a comical story to tell. You might have been the quiet, good natured guy in the background but when the time was right you had a quick wit and some of the best one liners. You exuded patience and I'm going to miss your presence in our big family where you shared a special relationship with everyone of our kids. You were well loved among us Dave... I can only imagine your reunion with Dad and Tanner....I'm so envious of your shared jokes and the laughter...I hope you gave Tanner all those big hugs and kisses we sent from all of us here. May the two of you have nothing but sunny days on endless fairways...we'll look after your Julie and Jimmy but I can't promise you anything except no eye contact for your feral Charlie! Goodbyes are not forever...until we meet again! 💕💕

“ Aw, David, this is so heartbreaking. I'll always remember you, my handsome older cousin with the super cool silver front tooth! I remember you taking me at age 8 on a boot on your motorbike around your folks ranch and my Mom freaking out when she saw us - since I was wearing flip flops , a dress and no helmet! You are the sweetest of men. The world has lost a little light since we lost you. So much love to Julie & Betty. Thanks for being you, David. We'll miss you.

“ Pecker what the hell? This isn't funny anymore you can come back now. Don't know if were all going to cope without your quick wit and cheeky smile.
I know I'm struggling...who the hell am I going to talk to about trump? You liked him just about as much as me.
Going to miss our chats about nothing, it was more about keeping in touch. Damn peck just going to miss you so much 💔
Was glad to hear you finally pulled the plug couldn't stand to see u in pain, you didn't deserve any of that crud. So now you got drafted #1 in the big mans team eh! You know that your not on a mission from God?
I'm still in shock...going to miss my big brother can't put into words how much you meant to me.
They say you have to die to live so get the heck out there and start living. Catch you on the flip side mate. Say good day for me to all that met you there. Love forever

“ Dave was one of the good ones. He loved all of his family without reservation, put his wants and needs in the background for others, and always had at least two great stories or memories for every visit to make you laugh (or cry). A person's life is often measured by the depth and breadth of people they touch. Dave touched many. Family, friends, co-workers, teammates all got to know a man with a kind and gentle nature, behind which burned relentless passion for life and people. Years could pass between meetings, but we would just pick up again as if it were the day before. He had that gift. As one of those lucky enough to have spent time with him, I am truly thankful.
