“ Dad was a very independent man until the end. As compromised as his health was, he fought to get anywhere on his own two feet. Even as much as few days before his passing, he walked to the dining room for breakfast. Many offered to help, but Dad was bound and determined to do it himself. There was a pride about him. no one was to make a fuss, just let him do it! I'm going to miss you Dad, our phone calls, our stories, our time.
Rest now, you are free!
Lovingly, your daughter, Laurie
