“ *We will all miss Don. Especially his infectious laugh. Joe and Don shared many happy conversations. And memories of childhood on the Fort Qu'Appelle farm. He loved telling his parent's story of accepting the gospel. Ripples of that influence affected the Howden family. For which we are very grateful. I think it's safe to say 'everyone loved Don.'

Many great memories have flooded back in the last week. Hunting deer with Don and Dad in 29 coulee. Our nanny goat jumping on the newly painted roof of Don's 98 Olds. Water skiing on Echo lake. Tree farm dedication. Shop work with a unique creative pair of hands. Most of all remembering no compromise of his belief in God and his promises while visiting in last years. We miss him already.
