“ Donna’s friendship to me was unfailing and unconditional. She always, always, was there for me and her understanding and kindness knew no limits. I never doubted the fact that she was my forever friend and will miss her so much. She blessed the lives of everyone she touched and sweetened everyones day. Someday I will see you again and it will be the most incredible reunion.
I love you, my good and faithful friend.

Donna was a very sweet lady that I had the pleasure of meeting at her home in person 2017. She was very happy and positive gal that use to send me letters with beautifully decorated envelopes filled with letters and poems of encouragement.
I last spoke with Donna on the phone in the spring of 2020. She was a beautiful soul and I enjoyed our chats although last couple were quite brief due to her failing health. My sincerest condolences to the family.
