“ Awww little Doreen , never harmed a sole and kept to herself. She always had time to say hi in her timid little voice and always a smile. I will miss meeting her on friendship trail. RIP Doreen

“ My favorite memory of Doreen was a day we were standing between our houses talking about the clover taking over the grass. She said she watched when G. planted it. And now it had spread. I asked why the heck he would do that. She laughed and said. I. Don't. Know. We both just stood and laughed. I felt privileged to have you as my neighbour. Your attic light is on. I haven't asked anyone to turn it off. I hope you don't mind but it's comforting. Miss you.
