

Mr. Henry Fehr

August 13, 1931 - February 25, 2021

Mr. Henry Fehr of High River, AB passed away on February 25, 2021, at the High River Hospital at the age of 89 years. Henry is survived by his wife, Margaret; daughters, Terry Fehr, Linda Fehr and Shannon Fehr; grandchildren, Josh Elliott (Sarah), Sean Elliott (Nancy), Kiara Elliott (Brandon), Abraham Lancaster (Kara), Nolan Lancaster, Sam Patterson (Ember), Kieran Patterson, and Griffon Fehr; great grandchildren, Owen Elliott and Jasper Lancaster. Henry was predeceased by his parents, Abram and Helena Fehr and his stepmother, Susie Fehr; siblings, Jake Fehr, Helen Fehr, John Fehr, Marie Neufeld, Isaac Fehr, Pete Fehr and son; Myron Fehr.

Henry was born at his family's farm south of Swift Current, SK. At the age of 14 years, he was sent to boarding school in Three Hills AB. He completed his high school in Caronport, SK, and his first year of Normal School in Moose Jaw, SK.

It was while teaching in Wymark that he met Margaret Wiebe. They were married in Swift Current on August 15, 1953. Henry was welcomed as a son and brother into Margaret's family, and his absence will be felt by her siblings, Ed Wiebe (Cecile), Cathy Gerein (Austin) and Leonard Wiebe (Grace).

Over the years that followed, while continuing to teach, and with Margaret's unfailing support, Henry continued his education and eventually completed his Bachelor of Education degree in 1963. Henry taught school for more than 30 years in various locations in Saskatchewan including Cedar Hill, Brock, Wymark and Swift Current. His years at O. M. Irwin and the Swift Current Comprehensive High School were busy and rewarding. Many former students will have fond recollections of his wry sense of humour, his love of football and his commitment as trainer to the SCCHS Colts football team. Henry was a respected professional and enjoyed the friendship of many colleagues.

In 1964, Henry and Margaret with their two oldest children moved to Swift Current, SK and purchased their first home - the home in which they lived until they moved to High River, AB in 1996. This home was an ongoing labour of love and a creative expression of their commitment to one another. Together, Henry and Margaret completed hundreds of projects, both in and outside their home in Swift Current. Together, they designed large and small home improvements and learned how to bring them to life (all this without the benefit of Google).

Henry was active in his community of Swift Current, serving as president of the local band parent's association as well as president of the music festival association. He was also treasurer at Bridgeway Community Church. As with everything else in their lives, Henry and Margaret joyfully shared these tasks, complementing one another's strengths and areas of skill.

In 1996, Henry and Margaret embarked on a new adventure. They moved to High River, AB. Their new home in High River became the beneficiary of their combined and accumulated expertise. They became active members at Trinity Mennonite Church and continued to expand their circle of friends.

Henry was an avid carpenter and could frequently be found in the garage building toys and furniture using recycled materials. Friends and family could count on 'Hank' to provide assistance in their projects as well. He continued to love football and was a committed Saskatchewan Roughriders fan. As I write this, I am sitting in his chair in the study and imagining how many pleasant hours he spent here watching 'the game'. One of the great loves of Henry's life was singing, especially barbershop, and he passed this love of music on to his children and many of his grandchildren, investing endless time and energy in their musical education.

Henry was simple and honourable man, a Christian in the Mennonite tradition. His faith was the cornerstone of how he lived his life – a life of love, steadfastness and stewardship. He loved God. He loved Margaret. He loved his children and grandchildren. His love, fearless and kind during his life, will continue to burn bright in our hearts and hearths. We will miss him... a lot.

A private Funeral Service will be held on Friday, March 5, 2021 @ 2:00 p.m. at the Trinity Mennonite Church. At that time, the public can access the Trinity Mennonite Church's Facebook Group to watch the service live, <https://fb.me/e/4eFaOyIfY>.

“ Sincere condolences to Hank’s family and friends. Whenever Shannon and I would take a group of band students to a festival at U of C or to Mount Royal University, it would be most likely that Henry and Margaret would be in the audience cheering on Shannon’s latest group of students, and supporting her all the way through. In case you haven’t noticed, Shannon is no longer a teen, and it was so impressive to me that her parents would drive in from High River to show their support. Hank was funny and witty, well-informed and intelligent, and easy to talk to and will be dearly missed. He lived a life of example and a strong legacy for others to follow. Sending love. God bless.

“ My heart aches for the great loss you, Marge and your family, are experiencing. I know how much Henry loved you all and how he was loved by you. We loved the times we spent together and appreciated Henry's humour and commitment to family. He will be missed but how we rejoice that he is now enjoying being in the presence of our Lord Jesus. May God's love surround you, comfort you and fill you as only He can. Love you all!

“ I have had the privilege of knowing Shannon for many years and I profoundly grateful that she is a part of my life. Her humour, kindness, and genuine love for her family and friends has been a real testament to the incredibly close relationship she has had with her parents. I had the honour of meeting Henry at Shannon's birthday party years ago and the humour, wit, and deep love that he had for his daughter and all his family was palatable. Henry, I am forever grateful for the gift you gave the world when you and your wife had Shannon. She and her children are so important to me and I will forever be grateful to you for that. Shannon, Griffon, and family, I am so very sorry for your loss. Please know that I and my family are thinking about you so much during this time. Much love,
Rachael, Greg, and Anwen xoxo

“ I've know Shannon for almost twenty years and watched as she has patented he children, like mine, now adults. Wile I didn't know Henry, it was always so prevalent that the love shown by her folks, was something that translated into her love for her kids. Unwavering and endless! So, thank you for that example that has reached far and beyond individual relationships.
May the memories live on and may the love spread far. Our thoughts are with you all at this time.

“ Our sympathy and condolences to you, Terry, and your mom and sisters. We remember your dad as a great math, geometry and trigonometry teacher. He had a great sense of humour. I remember sleepovers at your house and enjoyed time spent with your parents in Swift Current. I also remember visiting your family in Brock. Your dad was a good friend of my parents and I know he left a lasting positive impact on everyone he met and interacted with. Mike and Gayle Epp

“ I think of him often . . . he taught me driver training and instilled a sense of safety; I often hear his voice of caution. He taught me math, which became a cornerstone of further academic and professional pursuits. Rest in peace, Mr. Fehr, and condolences to your family.
