

Mr. James Benjamin McGregor

November 3, 1929 - August 26, 2023

James Benjamin McGregor beloved Father, Husband, Grandfather and Great Grandfather died peacefully at home with his family in attendance on August 26th, 2023. Jim's 93 years were a testament to his resilience and determination to experience life to the fullest. He was predeceased by his wife of 70 years, Margaret.

He will be sadly missed by his children Jim McGregor (Harriet), Kevin McGregor, Maureen Kewley (Bill), Kathryn McGregor (David) and Emmett McGregor (Anita); his grandchildren Jennifer, Erin, Connor, Ben, Jenn and Lynnette; and his great grandchildren Olivia, Myles, Jo, Andrew, Wyatt and Cyrus and most recently Baby Bronco (Logan).

Jim was a loyal friend, a creative dreamer, a consummate entrepreneur, and a deep thinker. He loved the outdoors, designing and building things and more than anything reading everything and anything. He was actively working into his mid seventies and only slowed down to take on the responsibilities of caregiving Margaret as her health failed.

He will be deeply missed.

A funeral mass is to be held at Saint Theresa's Catholic church at Ma-Me-O beach, Alberta on September 21, 2023 at 11am. Interment of both Jim and Margaret will follow at Lakedell Cemetery.

The service will be live-streamed at <https://unsw.zoom.us/j/89096278162>

Caring for the family is Lyle Reeves Funerals of High River (Craig Snodgrass)
