

Mr. James Warren Potter

October 25, 1937 - July 8, 2013

Jim passed away peacefully with his family by his side at the Oilfields Hospital in Black Diamond on July 8, 2013 at the age of 75, following a long courageous battle with cancer.

Jim was born on October 25, 1937 at Daysland, Alberta and is survived by his loving wife Butch, his son Miles (Amelia), Grand Daughters Taylor & Jordan (his "Sweethearts") and Stepdaughter Lisa (Dana) Cudmore. He is also survived by his sister Sheila (Bill) Downey, brother Larry Potter, sister-in-law Peggy Potter and many nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his parents Everett and Tillie and brother Harvey Potter. Jim's family would like to acknowledge the outstanding care he received earlier this year by Dr. Hyndman and staff of Unit 82 at the Rockyview General Hospital in Calgary. A special thank you to Dr. Gillis and Alanna McDonough for their support during the past 10 years. A heart felt thank you to Dr. Schuck and staff of the Oilfields Hospital in Black Diamond for the amazing care and compassion that they provided Jim and his family during his final weeks of life.....for sharing your hugs and tears, it meant more than you know.

As per Jim's expressed wishes there will be no memorial service.

For those wishing to do something in Jim's memory his family would be honored to have donations made in his name to the Sheep River Health

Foundation-dedicating it to the Oilfields Hospital Palliative Care Rooms www.sheeprieverhealthtrust.ca .

“ I can remember one day, Jim comes home and says "this is a crazy house! A cat (Dingbat) hanging off the screen wanting in. A mouse rolling around the kitchen (Lisa's hamster), and six noisy kids running around outside, and only one of them is mine! Jim was a nice man, and he will be missed by Miles and his family.
