“ this is heart breaking!! I loved her so very much and we had so much fun together, it all started at the Medicine Tree Manor and continued when she became a resident at the Hospital. She always had the most gorgeous room, and we would play tricks in her room and she always acted like it was ridiculous, but her face said otherwise! She was a class act from her core, always so well put together, a smile that lit up any room and that twinkle in her eye when she tried to be stern but couldn't pull it off. She was the type of woman born with class and elegance and a grace for one and all. I will miss her terribly but I know she is now at peace and painless. My heart breaks for you Dan. You meant everything to her and she was so incredibly proud of you.

“ Rest in Peace Jean ☐
It was a pleasure to know you, I will always remember you at the manor, coming to dinner all dressed up, you were a very classy lady.
Rest easy my friend.
