“ Sincerest condolences to all of Jens family and friends. She was a kind gentle soul and I'm happy to have had the pleasure to know her. She took amazing care of my father before he passed and I was so thankful to have her there by his side. Growing up I looked up to her and I will cherish the memories I have as I know you will too. Thinking of everyone during these terribly hard times. -Brittany Fox, Clint Gillis and family.

“ Ford, Carolyn, Jason and and Chris;

Jen was my best friend as a teenager, we had expedited so many first time experiences together. I wish I would keep more in touch, thank for letting me be a part of your family. I have so many Fond memories.

*Farewell to you and the youth I spent with you.
It was but yesterday we met in a dream. You have sung to me in my aloneness, and I your longings have built a tower in the sky.
But now our sleep has fled and our dream is over, and it is no longer dawn.*

The noontime is upon us and our half walking has turned to fuller day, and we must part.

If in the twilight of memory we should meet once more, we shall speak again together and you shall sing to me a deeper song.

And if our hands should meet in another dream we shall build another tower in the sky.

“ So sorry Carolyn and Gord to hear of Jen's passing. I have so many memories of Jen when we were younger. We lost touch as we grew older but will always remember the good times growing up.

I hope she is at peace now.

“ Dear Carolyn and family,
I know that no words can lessen your pain of loss, or ease your intense sorrow at this most difficult time. People have been reminding me that grief is the price we pay for loving someone. If the intensity of our love is directly proportionate to the intensity of the grief we endure, then I am sure your grief is beyond abundant. Please know I care about you, and sincerely wish I could do more than offer words. I will always think of what a caring and loving mother you were. You have been forced to say good-bye to Jen far too soon; the most difficult thing any parent will ever face. May you find the strength to gain peace, and may you dwell on memories of happy times to bring you comfort.
Sincerely,
Patty Atkinson
