“ *My deepest sympathies to Polly and her family. I didn't know John very well. However, on the few occasions I met him found him to be very caring and entertaining to be around. I do recall, this is going back about 9 or 10 years ago, our skating group had gone to the golf course for our annual luncheon. Polly and John asked me to call a good friend of theirs with whom they were doing the '12 days of Christmas' and inquire for them if he was going to be at home so a parcel could be delivered. John and Polly knew that their friend would not recognize my voice, and therefore it would be a surprise. I'll never forget that - we certainly shared a good laugh that day!! Take care,
