“ John, I'm sorry we couldn't do more for you that night. I find a bit of comfort knowing you were surrounded by friends and doing what you loved, supporting us. I'll never forget you my friend. My deepest condolences to his boys, family and musical family. Bless you John, Safe travels.

“ Thanks for all the sound jobs you did for us, and all the stories and advice. You took us kids under your wing in 2002, and any gig after that without you on the sound board didn't feel right. When I needed a bass player, and a tutorial in country music, you were there 100%. Thanks for everything John, you were a real gem.
