“ We are very sorry for the delay in offering our condolences to the Southgate families. John was our mechanic for many years and we appreciated his honesty, kindness and sense of humour. It is seldom that we find a really special person through business and John was truly one of the "Good Guys"

“ I apologize for sending this so late but I was out of town in the fall and only became aware of John's passing today. I took my vehicles to John's shop for many years and came to appreciate the many wonderful characteristics of the man. I was most struck by his friendliness and honesty (and obviously his knowledge of cars) and spent many hours just chatting with him. I was sorry to see him sell his shop and am much sorrier to hear of his passing. Please know my world was better for having known him - may he Rest In Peace.
