“ I looked forward to a drop in visit to chew the fat with Joe, I'd usually find him in the shop, in winter keeping the wood fire going. Joe was a straight shooter, a handshake kind of guy, I regret losing contact with Joe and Sheila in the last few years. RIP Joe!

“ I had the privilege of serving Joe and his buddies in the dining room at Tudor Manor for the last several months before I transferred to the laundry department. Joe always greeted me by name and gave me a huge smile. He was the sweetest, most gracious man with a great sense of humour. It was a true pleasure chatting with him about music and getting to know him. I will miss him dearly. Sending my deepest condolences to his family and his friends right now xoxo

“ i was saddened to hear of Joe's passing and my heartfelt thoughts and sympathy go out to all of Joe's family and friends. I will always hold Joe and Abe in my heart for building the Davidson family a brand new home in Black Diamond in 1960. I have fond memories of helping Joe build a new 16 foot boat in Abe's garage over one winter, Joe taught me to ski with that boat at Lake McGregor. When Joe and Sheila moved to the Shuswap Lake area, I had many great moments visiting with them and doing lot's of water skiing. Joe was a Master Carpenter and could could build anything out of wood, that he loved working with!! I was happy to meet up with Joe at Tudor Manor more recently, we "time travelled" over the years with many memories and laughs and I was able to thank him for being a "mentor" in my life!
Farewell for now my friend, till we meet on the other side.

Joe was a great friend for many years. We did some interesting things together; he did wood-work for me and I did iron-work for him and enjoyed every minute together. I regret losing contact in the past few years. Condolences to Sheila and family from Della and I. Al Dickie

I was lucky to meet Joe in Tutar Manor where my mother resides. We made quick friends and had many great talks and laughs. I never met anyone that loved ice-cream sandwiches like he did! Joes kindness to others was unbelievable and his stories about work and family touch my heart and made me leave there with a smile each day. I will miss our talks and ice-cream sandwiches my friend.

Joe was a really great guy! I really enjoyed the times I spent with him in his workshop while he taught me about carpentry. I am really fortunate to have known him.
