“ I had the privilege of working with Judy for a lot of years at CIBC. I'm sure she knew everyone who lived in or around High River, and they all loved her! She will be truly missed I am sure. Most of all she was so proud of each of her kids and grandkids (and I'm sure more recently of her great grandchildren). We always heard the highlights! My condolences to all of you, Ron, Cheryl, Jim, and each of your families. May your many good memories of your mom/grandma/great grandma sustain you in the coming days and weeks.

“ Cheryl, Ron, Jim & families, so sorry to hear of Mom & Grandma's passing. Judy truly was one of H.R.'s characters and will be missed by many. So enjoyed the many laughs we shared and could get out of Judy, especially when she was greeted with how are you doing Beatrice? A nickname she acquired back in the 70's by a few of Cheryl's friends including you too Cheryl. We are sure Walter welcomed you up by singing the Cattle call song just for you. Farewell Jude you left us all with plenty good memories. Sorry we are away and unable to attend the service.

“ To Judy's Family, please be assured you meant the world to her! In every conversation, Judy had a story to tell about one or all of you. I will always remember Judy as a very dear friend, full of laughter and the giver of special hugs. No matter how full her calendar was, she always made time to help out around the Cayley community. She faithfully attended and supported our Cayley UCW Circle; we were blessed. Volunteering with a capital "V" was a way of life to Judy. Her good deeds over the years were beyond numerous! Her amazing legacy is a gift left to you, the family and to her very close friends to hold tight and cherish. As Judy loved life and we must honour her memory and do the same!

May God healing grace rest on us all as we grieve.

*Dear Ron, Cheryl and Jim and all of your family,
I have so many memories of your Mom.....although she was my cousin (officially) she was much like an Auntie to me. Judy was such a "giver" and all of my memories always include her giving nature. I an remember times at the farm in my very young years where she would take time to play with myself and Vern - she could always relate to us even when we were jut toddlers visiting Uncle Julius an Auntie Ruth. As we grew up over the years she was always the first participant at family gatherings to ask "What can I bring". She always opened her home to all of us and was always happy to visit. She was a wonderful strong lady who was a wonderful Mom, Grama, and Great Grama to all of her family. She lover you all dearly and was very proud of you three kids and all of your accomplishments. Cherish the great memories in the days to come.....
Our thoughts are with you all.
