

Mr. Justin James Ikebuchi

May 1, 1976 - October 13, 2020

Justin Ikebuchi was SO MUCH ... in life, in work, in sport, in travel, in play, in community, and most importantly, as a proud, loving husband and dad.

In the minor hockey world, Coach Justin was known as the coach with a red helmet and gloves whose goal was always to ensure that each player had fun. He was also a devoted dance dad who never missed a chance to watch his daughter do what she loved. He truly believed in community and the power of connecting with both kids and adults.

In his professional life, Justin was one of the most valued equity traders in the country. He earned the respect of both clients and his peers especially because of his unique, extraordinary ability to cultivate these business relationships into lasting friendships.

Sports, sports, sports. He loved to compete! Football, hockey, water skiing, baseball, bobsledding, down hill skiing, golf, darts, track and field, as well as bowling — he loved it all. Justin was a natural athlete. It was impressive to watch him show off doing basically any sport except basketball or flutter board races. His wife holds both those titles.

A loyal friend and a devoted son and brother. Justin's parents raised the most genuine and authentic friend who a person could ever ask for. It didn't matter if he met you in elementary school, on the football field, on the trade desk, or on his kids' sports teams, Justin made friendships for a lifetime. If you were lucky enough to become a part of his inner circle, you were guaranteed a friend who was capable of not only making you laugh until you cried, but one who would also give you his last $5 or the shirt off his back without a moment's hesitation.

He wanted to experience it all. Whether it was skiing in Japan, sailing in the BVI's, scuba diving on the Great Barrier Reef, exploring wine caverns in France, or single-handedly planning a three week motor home trip with his family to the Gulf of Mexico and back. He was always looking for adventure. The dichotomy of Justin meant that he was equally as happy treating his wife to lavish experiences, like a dinner at the top of the Eiffel Tower, as he was drinking a beer and catching up with his buddies around a campfire.

Although he had many awesome accomplishments in life, his true passion was his family. As his kids will tell you, dad loved: ketchup chips, new black socks, everything red (including the Flames), crib, Jerry Rice, the Raiders, Dumb & Dumber, The Tragically Hip, and U2. But most of all, he loved family time - cuddles, games, weekend pancakes, and smoking ribs.

Justin really was SO MUCH and it is our hope that the focus moving forward will be on the countless moments of joy and laughter that he shared with his family and friends. He lived life fully and completely.

So Much - Jamie, Sydney, Raiden, Calder & Devin

Forever in the hearts of his parents, Marillyn & Jim and his brother, Ryan and his family.

Unfortunately due to the circumstances a private service was held. The service was live-streamed October 30th and is available to be viewed on Justin's tribute page.

We are deeply saddened of Justin's passing. It has been so hard to think about anything else knowing how it has affected our family but that imagining how hard it must be for Team Ikebuchi. What an amazing chronological video and incredible eulogy Jamie.

My memories of Justin will always be positive ones. From his power of observation (could pick out some great opportunities in an instant and be spot on) to his amazing patience (many a time after ice waiting for our sons to come out of the dressing room...always last) to his ability to strike up a conversation from the balcony of the house as we walk the paths behind your house. He will surely be missed by many – including the Paulgaard family.

It is wonderful that SMHA has honored the Timbit champion (how many years in a row?) and phenomenal coach with the namesake for the volunteer of the year – an honor for anyone over the years to come who puts as much into it as Justin did.

You are all in our thoughts and prayers every day. Take good care of each other, "live life for the moment – enjoy the journey" as surely it will continue and our paths will cross again!

Love, Greg, Jackie, Joel, and Julia.

What an beautiful tribute to such a wonderful man. His love for his family was so evident in all that he did and the incredible kids you have raised. He really set the bar high and one can only aspire to accomplish what he had and live the way he did. It's not a surprise that he was admired by so many. He lived life with such kindness and gave so much of himself to others. Thank you for sharing this with us. Our thoughts are with you.

Family and friends,

Our hearts and thoughts are with you during this difficult time of grieving the unbelievable loss of Justin.

It is during times of great loss that we realize how limiting words can be and how special our family and friends are. Please know that you are not alone in remembering a truly remarkable person who meant so much to so many. It was a privilege to have known Justin and we can see that his goodness lives on through each of you. We have so many good memories of Justin growing up and maturing into the amazing man he became. Our last memory is of Justin was one day this summer when he, Jamie and their family were helping Debbie do some yard work with the promise of Hitchin Post after the task was done. Justin trimmed the beautiful tree out front. We will always remember he took the time to pop over to say hi - that is just the kind of special man he was. We will be thinking of you and your family. Even though we can not be with you tomorrow in person we will be there in our thoughts and prayers for each of you.

We are heartbroken to learn of the passing of Justin and send our sincere condolences. I knew Justin as a friend and his football coach. Justin was a superb athlete. Back in his Mustangs days he was a force to be reckoned with. Whether it was a 40 trap WR reverse, bubble screen or long bomb when Justin touched the ball excitement would build. Justin was a great teammate and alumni supporter. Whenever our paths would cross he always called me “coach”. Justin grew up and became a wonderful husband and father. Justin had a brilliant career away before coming home. He never forgot his friends. High River was always his home. Wishing you peace and know the many wonderful memories will keep Justin close to your heart.

“ I have struggled how to write these words of condolence for the Ikebuchi family. Justin was a huge part of my childhood, junior and senior high school years. We went our separate ways after high school but I have always held him and his family in extremely high esteem. So many of my childhood memories have Justin and the rest of the gang in the forefront of my many memories. So much love sent to Marilyn, Jim and Ryan(and family)and of course his wife Jaime and their beautiful family. Justin you will be forever loved and forever missed.

Jaimie, Justin's little angles and entire family, We are thinking of you and wish everyone peace and strength everyday. Our hearts are broken, the world has lost a righteous dad, husband and friend. Justin wanted to help after we lost our little Nathan and family. As I tried to rebuild my life, I wanted to coach again, I was nervous about how I would be treated and perceived, Justin and Jaimie made me feel welcome back into Springbank coaching ranks. He always would stop, brightly say hello and make me feel welcome. Looking back Justin provided grace, support, and a moment of peace so I could keep going in this journey. I will miss seeing Justin at the rinks, chatting with him talking hockey and everything else.

I haven’t seen Justin in years but all the memories of elementary school just starting flooding my brain. He was such a cool kid. Then he became this cool Jr High kid and then he became an all star in High school , then to turn out to be so Successful in life. Beautiful wife , beautiful children. It’s not far , this was way to soon for his story to end .

“ Jamie, our hearts absolutely breaks for you, Sydney and the boys. There truly are no words to express this tremendous loss you are all feeling. Anytime I saw Justin he was such a kind man. You could see how much he loved his family. May you take comfort in the beautiful memories you built together for he will forever live in your hearts. Our deepest condolences. Thoughts and prayers are with you 5 and all those who loved him ❤️

“ I am so sorry to hear the tragic news. My prayers and condolences go out to all his family and friends. I had the pleasure of working with Justin in Toronto and have many fond memories and funny stories of our time together. Always smiling, always charming and always hard working. He was even kind enough to share his dog Diggity with me and my son even after he moved back to Calgary. Rest in Peace Justin.

“ Words do not seem adequate ... please know my heart and prayers are with you all at this time of unimaginable loss. We were so fortunate to have your family as neighbours, and I loved babysitting your boys (yes, Justin, I was only there for Ryan...I know you did not need a babysitter!) Such great boys and fine men you raised. Justin was a shining star, gone far too soon, but he definitely made this world a brighter place. Peace and love be with you all.

“ To the Ikebuchi family, there are no words to express how saddened I was to hear about Justin. I have lots of fond memories of growing up in Neighbourhood East and Justin was part of those memories - be it at school, playing kick the can on the street or trick or treating. One Halloween we thought we were so tricky going back to the same house multiple times because they were handing out full sized chocolate bars. “We didn’t know we were making memories, we were just kids having fun”.

May all of your memories bring you comfort in the days ahead.

“ Marilyn, Jim, Ryan, I am so sorry to hear of Justin’s passing. I know your hearts are broken and please know I am thinking of you. From the early times, when I got to know you, you always spoke so proudly of your boys, and rightly so! Justin always excelled at everything he did- a huge tribute to his parents. My heart goes out to you.
