

Kelly-Ann Marie Spackman

November 1, 1962 - December 11, 2014

Kelly- Ann Spackman of High River, Alberta passed away at her home on December 11, 2014 at the age of 52 years. Kelly-Ann is survived by her husband Chuck of 35 years; son Ryan (Audree) Spackman; daughter Jennifer (Mike) Kirkham; grandson Brody Kirkham; sisters Kathy Klarholm; Karen Rioux; brothers Gary Rioux; Tim Rioux; parents; Leonard and Shirley Rioux. Kelly-Ann was born November 1, 1962 in Sudbury, Ont. She lived in Cartier and Onopng Ont. until she moved to Ft. McMurray, Alberta in 1978 where she later met the love of her life. Kelly married Charles Spackman in the summer of 1982 in Red Deer Alberta. They had their first child Jennifer in Tumbler Ridge BC in March of 1985 and had their second child Ryan in Ft. McMurray in July of 1988. As a family they fulfilled their dreams of living by the mountains and by the ocean until they settled in High River in 2008. Good times in life are sometimes interrupted by those events we would rather have pass us bye. This is certainly one of those times we would rather not go through. Rosemary and I will not be able to attend to share in Kelly's service with you, but know that our hearts will continue to ache with your loss. May God continue to provide strength and wisdom to all of you.*
