“ Dear Beverly and family
 We were so sorry to hear about Larry. The days of the Eckville Hotel and Hooverville can never be replicated. My dad Val Clancy and Larry had so much fun in those days!! Larry was an amazing man and our entire family thought the world of him. We hope dad and Larry are up above drinking beers and reminiscing about all the great times they had!

“ Dear Bev,
My prayers and thoughts are with you and your families. Larry was a Gentleman and a gentle man. He always had a twinkle in his eye and a quip or comment for every occasion! His easy way of meeting people was noted by my brother Keith when you attended my birthday party in Lacombe. Larry will be missed by many people on many different levels.

“ Dear Bev and family. It's with a saddened heart I write this. Larry, I can still remember him coming into the bank to do his banking and than along came you. It was always a pleasure to see his smile. Our prayers and condolences are with you today. Think of you often, it hasn't been a easy road, but yet, it holds so many sweet memories.
