My memories of Lee were mostly from childhood when he came to my parents home . I remember being in awe of this tall farm boy, I regret that we did not spend much time as adults however I do keep in touch with his brothers now and then. to Grant and Linda and Denis and Elsa and all the relations . Hope to see you in the near future

“ Candace, Dustin and family we are sorry for your loss. Lee was a wonderful neighbor, he was a private and considerate man. Gardening without him coming out to say hi will be tough. We will miss you. Elise & Megan Appleford

“ My wife Rosa and I were very saddened to hear of Lee's passing. Albeit High River was not our permanent residence, Lee was always a fantastic neighbor since we purchased the house next to his in 2006. Lee was always a fantastic neighbor providing help and advice whenever needed. It was always our pleasure to provide Lee with any assistance that he required. Lee will always be in our minds and hearts and will truly be missed.

“ I was sorry to hear that my cousin Lee had passed away. I am glad to have memories of him. One in particular I will always remember, we were on the farm and Lee was showing off the big tractor. He has several plows hooked up and as he made the turn near his pickup he miss judged his turn and hit the front of his truck. He stopped to checkout the damage, but was not upset at all. At that point he seemed as easy going as Uncle Herman. I will always remember you Lee, be at rest.

“ I just talked with him a few weeks ago and we were going to get together. Sadly that never happened.
My thoughts are with his family.
He was a very kind man.

“ I became an Auntie for the first time when Lee was born and I was quite impressed with being an Auntie. He was such a cute little boy and an a inquisitive one. It didn't matter what was happening or going on but it would invariably bring out one word from Lee "why". When you would answer him you just got another "why". Sometimes I have to admit I wished he had never learnt the word "why". He grew up to be a handsome man and was always good to his old Auntie. My one wish is that I had not moved so far away from all my family. I am glad that he is at peace and out of all the pain. He is with his family in heaven and they are probably having a good time being together. Will always remember you Lee with love from your Auntie Jean!
