“ I was shocked to read of Leila’s passing! She was such a kind and good friend to Terry’s sister, Nina. I enjoyed my daily visits with Leila at JT Foster school when we both worked there. I will always remember her smile that she freely gave to others even when life for her was not easy at that moment. My sincerest condolences to all who mourn her passing.

Sincerely, Patty Atkinson

“ Deepest sympathies to Leila's dear husband, Alvin & her beloved children & the greats! Leila loved you all unconditionally. She was also a loved and valued friend & member of our now closed Wood Memorial Church in Cayley. The Cayley Women's Connection however continued on when she moved north as many of us stayed in touch with Leila.

Leila has left you all with an amazing gift & legacy. Cherish her memory! I leave you with this paraphrase from St. Basil:

A tree is known by its fruit; a woman by her deeds.

A good deed is never lost;

She who sows courtesy reaps friendship.

And she who plants kindness gathers love!

“ So sorry to hear this news. Leila was a ray of sunshine as the caretaker of the Nanton Schools. Such a hard worker and caring person. She was one of our favourites. Thinking of the family as you say goodbye to such an amazing lady. Sandy and Dianne Comstock
