“ LeRoy’s Father Roy, was the Parachute □ instructor at the World War II, Air Training Base in High River. 1939 to 1945. We would see him every day at exactly 5:20 pm on his way home from the Airport, when he dropped into my Fathers Restaurant, the Royal Cafe, to pick up milk, fresh backed breads and rolls. Along with Jamie McKeage I was in the same elementary school classroom with LeRoy at the Highwood High School...and as kids, during those frightening hard War years, we spent many many memorable, happy hours, playing together.

My condolences to all the Family. You inherit a rich heritage and history from him.

Comfort and Joy be with him, and All of You

Now and forever

“ Dear Pearl, Kelly, Sandy, Marcus and Brooklyn,
We are very sorry to hear of the loss of Leroy, a great Husband, Father and Grandfather. Leroy was always up for a visit. If I popped by to pickup Kelly, I had to be sure to come in and have a visit with Leroy. A great man who will be dearly missed.

“ Pearl so sorry for your loss of Leroy. The thing about Leroy was that he never held back his opinion 👍 Past Active meetings and events was always a time to chat. I remember when you guys lived across the street from us and you could always see Leroy at his favourite position (chair sitting in the garage)💕💕

“ Dear Pearl and Kelly, working with Leroy at CWNG for so many years and maintaining our friendship long after that will forever be in my memories. Leroy was an wonderful man who loved his family and friends, I will never forget his sense of humour, his funny sayings or that big smile. “ Pearl and Family,
So sorry to hear of Leroy's recent passing. As a work colleague at CWNG, I fondly remember my trips to the High River Agency and the ribbing Leroy dished out like, “yup you know you are city boy locking your vehicle in High River”. One of the real greats at the Gas Company responsible for developing the reputation of excellent customer service the Company enjoyed. Leroy was simply a pleasure to work with a be around. My thoughts are with you during these especially difficult times.

“ I got to know Leroy through my wife Joanne who worked with Leroy for many years in CWNG. We met at dances, picnics and other occasions when CWNG had an active social committee. They were good times, and no one enjoyed them more than Leroy and Pearl. Leroy and I shared a joking relationship: the Old Viking and the Old Irishmen. We have thought often of Leroy and Pearl since his retirement. Now we wish to send to Pearl and her family our sincere condolences on Leroy's passing. He was a gem of a man.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Leroy's passing..... some of my fondest memories at CWNG were working with Leroy....."I am going out to where the pavement ends and the west begins" and "If anyone calls I am out and I will call them later" usually meant he was going home for a nap. One of the kindest men I ever knew. It was an honour to know him.

“ Pearl, Kelly and family my thoughts and prayers are with you. So many memories of times our families and especially you four adults got together. I can still hear Dad and LeRoy solving the world's problems as they "had to" so often. "Mr Lomheim" may have played tough, but his eyes would give him away, showing his caring heart. Peace be with you all.
