

Mrs. Linda Joyce French

June 20, 1947 - October 14, 2022

Linda French of High River, Alberta, beloved wife of 50 years to Bob, passed away on October 14, 2022, at the High River Hospital at the age of 75 years, after a short, and yet valiant, fight with cancer. Linda is survived by her husband Bob; sons Chad (Jane), and Tighe (Nikki); grandchildren Brianne, Cailie, Blake, Brodie, Ethan, and Miranda; sisters Susan (Gerry), and Cheryl (Clint); brother Gary (Barb); sister-in-law Betty-Ann; brother-in-law Albert; as well as numerous nieces and nephews. Linda was predeceased by her mother Joyce; and sister Gail "Tink".

Linda was born on June 20, 1947, in Medicine Hat. She grew up in Bow Island, where her affinity for family, sewing, and baseball formed, before later moving to Calgary. Linda met Bob in 1969, literally falling for him their first meeting and were married on August 5, 1972, raising their family in Calgary.

Linda was an avid quilter, many of her works being shared with those she loved and through The Victoria Quilts High River chapter. She loved spending time with her family (usually watching her sons - and later her grandchildren on the ball field) and loved the annual Allen family thanksgiving. Travelling the world was a passion of Linda's, leading to a career change mid life, and having visited every continent throughout her travels.

In lieu of flowers, memorial Donations may be made to the Alberta Children's Hospital Foundation my.childrenshospital.ab.ca, 28 Oki Drive NW Calgary, Alberta, T3B 6A8; the Stollery Children's Hospital Foundation www.stollerykids.com, 800 College Plaza, 8215 - 112 Street Edmonton, AB T6G 2C8; or the Cancer Society www.albertacancer.ca.

A private family interment will take place. A Celebration of Life will be announced at a later date.

Caring for the family is Lyle Reeves Funerals of High River (Craig Snodgrass) 403.652.4242.
