

Mrs. Loralee Sanderson

October 1, 1960 - October 4, 2020

October 1, 1960 - October 4, 2020

Loralee, beloved wife of Ron Sanderson from Blackie, Alberta passed away on Sunday October 4th, 2020 as harvest came to a close. Her love lives on through Ron and her 3 children; Kristin (Chase), Staci (Matt), and Ross (Heather) as well as her 7 grandchildren; Grayson, Everleigh, Ivy, Brooklynn, Kadence, Rylan and Reed. Loralee is also survived by her father Robert and sister Kim and is predeceased by her mother Karen.

Loralee's 13 year battle with cancer was one of grace and strength.

In lieu of flowers we ask that you continue to spread Loralee's love through random acts of kindness.

A Graveside Service will be held at the Highwood Cemetery on October 15th, 2020 at 1pm. Please bring a chair if you require one.

Caring for the family is Lyle Reeves Funerals of High River (403.652.4242).

“ Ron, Kristan, Chase, Staci, Matt, Ross, Heather and your families and Bob, Kim, and Mary and Lorne, It's taken me a long time to write this note and I still don't know what to say. Lorelee was the best niece one could have and we were so lucky she was ours. So often different people would ask me , “how's Lorelee doing”? I would usually answer , “good as far as I know “.She was not a complainer no matter how she felt. She was very close to her children and also her grandchildren - they all loved their “Elle”. Lorelee was a soft spoken, kid hearted girl and will be deeply missed by her family and also her friends. Rest In Peace Lorelee. We will all miss you. George and Judy “ Loralee was one of the most beautiful strong women I had the pleasure of knowing. Her inside and outside sparkle outdid the beautiful diamond earrings her children bought for her, just to brighten her day while going through yet another round of her fight in the ring. We laughed together and shared stories of our grand children. We are both blessed with twins. Yet Loralee outdid me with more special blessings of grand children in her life. How lucky was she, and how lucky they are to have had such an amazing Grandma. She will be truly missed, as a friend and a co-worker.

Loralee's quiet,gentle,private nature and easy smile was who she was to me. I so admired how she fought her disease with such courage, determination, and dignity, never complaining. May she Rest in Peace.*

“ Bob, Kim, Ron and family, Howard & I are so deeply saddened to hear of Lorelee's passing. We know she struggled for many years to fight this cancer but it was a battle she just couldn't win. She was a loving and kind woman always with a smile on her face. God had an empty spot in his garden and filled it with the most beautiful rose he could find, Lorelee. Know that she's at the peace now that she so dearly deserves. Our thoughts and prayers are with the whole family.
