“ I remember Muriel from my highschool days as a friend of her daughter's Nancy Jane and Lorna. My dad (Rod Paquette) always teased her and called her Mrs. Mooney. to me she was always ready to listen to us girls and always had a ready smile. Our heartfelt sympathy go out to Muriel's family. “ So many wonderful memories of Muriel, she was a kind, loving caring, and giving person. I was very fortunate to have her for a friend, as the years passed we didn't see each other often. But she has always been a very important part in my life and always will be. Rest in Peace Muriel. My thoughts go to all her family at this time they also are always in my thoughts.
