Your mom was a very nice lady and very capable and generous. When our girls were young I remember her and your dad coming to the farm with beautiful little dresses for our 4 girls. Al used to buy a lot of your fat cattle back in the day and that was when we would get together. Your mom was a very gracious host and I always enjoyed the visits. May she Rest In Peace. “ Our thoughts and prayers are with the entire Callahan family. Lew and Marie were pillars of the community. We thank your family for their contributions. Marie was a caring loving wife, mother, Grandmother, health care professional and a devote person of deep faith. I can still see her standing so straight while modelling in local fashion shows and her swimming her early morning laps at the pool to stay healthy. May your many memories of this remarkable woman help you through your grief. God Bless and Rest in a peace, Marie.
