“ Dear Marj - I can sit here and see you and Mom sitting at a dinner table together and once again having a late evening snack with friends, exchanging the repertoire of jokes you both had. As Mom once said recently, "I may not remember what I had for breakfast this morning, but that doesn't mean I don't remember a good joke, I heard 30 years ago". What a pair the two of you made and I will remember those times forever. My sincere condolences to all of Marj's family and know that you have a super long list of wonderful memories you can share about your amazing Mom.

“ Dear Members of Marj's Family, We are very sorry to hear of your Mom's passing; she was a great lady. We will always remember her from Monday night cribbage at the Kozy Korner; she did love to play. Marj had a very warm smile, and usually a little hint of mischief in that smile. She had a great sense of humor. You must have many fond memories to replace the sorrow you now feel from this loss. May knowing that others care help to ease your sadness.
Sincerely, Terry and Patty Atkinson
