“ Dear Friends, Former Classmates and Business Colleagues of Markus...

The support, phone calls, cards, flowers, nourishments and attendance at the Celebration of Life for Markus on October 7th was a time of appreciation for all of us in knowing that he shared his life with so many caring and loving people.

Our lives without Markus will never be the same - his spirit will be with us always.

Thank you for sharing your memories of Markus with us. He truly embraced and valued his relationship with all of you.

God Bless You.

“ I met Markus around 1984 at Weyburn's Elgin School elementary school. We quickly became close friends. Once my younger sister (Trenna), Markus and I built two teepee's with old branches, out a midst the walking-paths leading to the old Souris Valley Hospital. My favourite memory however is grade 6. Markus had 100% in spelling but opted to spell "color" without the letter "u" in it. It was marked incorrect bringing Markus to a 99%. Markus argued this point until the very end of the year with Mr. Olson; that this was not technically incorrect, just the American version of the word colour and it should be reconsidered. Markus won, and accomplished 100% at year end for Spelling that year. This set precedent as Markus was on the honour roll through grades 7-12. Markus you were always there to correct my spelling, put me in my place or let any good friend know the truth about anything. There is no one can replace you for any of us. You will be so deeply missed. Lovingly, Tara (aka Keat).

“ Markus, you are truly a remarkable and memorable person. You made an impression on everyone you met. From you helping people find homes and jobs to being that great friend to just hang out with. As I read all the tributes to you, I see that you were so special to so many people and it just shows how many hearts you have touched. You have always been such a big part of our family and I know myself, Lee and our kids are going to miss your presence like crazy. There are so many family dinners that I will never forget especially Thanksgiving "IT'S MY HOUSE" (I know you are laughing) and all the crazy masks you would wear to the poker games, the dill pickle chips with dill pickle dip and you just being you. It's all those little things that we are going to miss in a big way. I'm so thankful for all the memories we have and that we got to share you 37th b-day with you at the lake this year. You will always be in our hearts Markus XOXO.

“ I met Markus way back in Grade 6. My memory of Markus was the Flintstones. The tv channel was going to cancel the Flintstones and the whole class was upset. Markus took the initiative for the class to write a letter to the tv channel in protest of the potential cancellation. We all wrote the letter under his direction. We sent it off and to our amazement the Flintstones was not cancelled. To this very day whenever I think of the Flintstones I always think of Markus. He taught me my first lesson in life of in being proactive and taking a stand!!!

“ Markus, I don't even know where to begin. You have been so much more than a friend - you have been the biggest inspiration and help to me beginning my real estate career. Words will never express how much I appreciate everything you've taught me and every piece of advice that you have given me. I must now take everything that I have learnt from you and somehow make it on my own. Markus, you are my inspiration to keep at it and I will make you proud! You will never be forgotten and will always hold a place in my heart.

“ Markus, you were my next door neighbour when you first moved to Calgary and I will never forget how helpful you were to me when something needed fixing or when I just had 'house' questions, how you and your friends dragged me to the 'Saskatchewan Halloween party'.....a few years later we ended up sharing our office at ReMax - cramped but fun - and on many many occasions you were there for me when I was a new realtor....memories of working in the 'hood, always supporting the realtor lunches, me putting my foot in my mouth about the Sask Grey Cup loss....whoops!...don't really know football or how serious those Sask fans can be.....

You have touched so many lives with your kindness, honesty and caring.....that is truly a gift that you have given us.....thank you. My commitment to your memory is to reach out every day, even with a small gesture like a smile, and let people know that they do matter very much. You will be greatly missed my friend.....rest in peace.

“ Markus, we became friends very quickly and had so many good times since then. Where do I even start... the parties, laughs, golfing, Flames and Stamps games. Our trips to Kelowna and Invermere, meeting up in Arizona, and of course my favorite time together was our road trip to Houston this summer. We spent what felt like a thousand hours driving a million miles in sweltering 40+ degree heat. We talked and laughed for hours, went to the Astros/Red Sox game, slept in cheap motels. It was a great time. it also solidified us as friends for life cause you were there when I needed someone to lean on. You proved you were a thoughtful and caring friend. I remember when we were driving back after a long chat about life, I put a hand on you're shoulder and said "Markus, you have a friend for life with me" . That is the effect you had on people. I love you bro...you will be missed everyday.

“ "If friends and memories are what makes us rich, Markus was the millionaire he always strived to be."

*Dear Darla and family,
We were so saddened by the tragic loss of your son, Markus.
You know that we understand, having experienced such heartache ourselves with our son Troy's death. There is nothing in life that prepares us for such sorrow.*

*You are in our thoughts

“ Farewell to you and the youth I have spent with you.
It was but yesterday we met in a dream.
You have sung to me in my aloneness, and I of your longings have built a tower in the sky.
But now our sleep has fled and our dream is over, and it is no longer dawn.
The noontide is upon us and our half waking has turned to fuller day, and we must part.
If in the twilight of memory we should meet once more, we shall speak again together and you shall sing to me a deeper song.
And if our hands should meet in another dream we shall build another tower in the sky.

You will be deeply missed. Rest easy Markus

This is a good one and a picture of three young friends having fun. . . a time to remember and cherish. I am so saddened by this loss—as is everyone; I remember Markus as a little boy, a great teenager and a dashing young man with such charm. We always enjoyed his company in our home. He was a great young fellow, indeed! My condolences to his family and friends.
