

Mr. Matthew van den Broek

April 22, 1972 - December 17, 2020

It is with heavy hearts the family of Matthew Jan van den Broek announce his sudden passing on December 17th, 2020. Matt was a son, brother, uncle and friend. He loved the outdoors, learning and philosophy.

His proudest and most challenging achievement was being a father to his daughter, Brooke. He shared with her his love of books, animals and debate. Matt taught her the hardest lesson of finding compassion in times of anger, and to love in moments of hurt.

Matt was a life-long friend, partner and soulmate, throughout years of ups and down. Matt suffered with addiction and personal demons, he worked hard throughout his life to try and overcome these.

May he now find the peace he fought so hard for.

We love you and will forever grieve your absence.

“ Today I learned an old and dear friend is no longer with us. It had been years since I last spoke with Matt as our lives have taken us on different and distant journeys.

You will forever be a very special person to me Matt. Your friendship during a very difficult time in my life is something I can never thank you enough for.

Rest in peace Matt.
