“ Dear Wayne and Family,
We are very sorry for your loss and want to offer our sincerest sympathies. May it help to ease your sorrow to know that Maxine will be fondly remembered for her beautiful smile, and warm and friendly personality. She will be pictured in our memory dancing so smoothly and gracefully with Wayne. Pride yourselves in knowing that Maxine was so extremely proud of her husband, children, and grandchildren. You enriched her life as much as she did yours. May your pain of the loss of Maxine in your lives soon be replaced with the comfort and joy of happy memories of great times enjoyed together. She loved you all so much, and passed away, content we are sure, with the knowledge that you would continue to be a credit to her as you live your lives.
Sincerely, Terry and Patty Atkinson

“ In 1981 I had the opportunity to live in Canada for 8 months on the A7 at the Gregory Place. This is where I met a wonderful couple Maxine and Wayne Schlosser. As a young Aussie Maxine made me feel welcome and became a lifelong friend. Maxine and Wayne traveled to Australia in 1983 and 2013, both times we enjoyed having their company and showcasing our country. I believe the people we meet in life's journey leave us enriched that we were lucky enough to have known them. I will forever remember Maxine for her bubbly personality and wonderful company. She had a great personal strength, warmth and resilience. Our deepest sympathy to Wayne and Family at this difficult time. Graham and Linda Ward

“ Fond memories of Maxine when I was living on the Blacktail 30 years ago. We wanted a barn cat, so she brought one of her pregnant cats over in a burlap sack.

This momma cat was beautiful and wild, perfect for what we needed. The cat stayed to herself in the barn and had four kittens a few days latter.

The momma and kittens stayed mainly hidden for days but after five days of not seeing them I phoned Maxine to tell her.

Maxine called me the next day laughing. The cat had shown back up at her ranch which was at least 5 miles away with her four kittens in tow. We were amazed she accomplished that feat with four new babies.

Maxine kept the cat and kittens as she felt the momma and her new family deserved to stay.

To Wayne and the rest of Maxine's family please know that you are in my heart.
